

SARAH ANN CARPENTER

---

921 Westminster Drive, Charleston, WV 25701, (304) 344-7566, carpentersa@marshall.edu

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Position as Elementary School Teacher

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Successful and confident in classroom presentations; creative and enthusiastic.
- Solid academic background in child development theories and applications.
- Experience working with special education students mainstreamed into the classroom.
- Nominated as "Student Teacher of the Year."

EDUCATION

B.A., Elementary Education, June 2005

Marshall University, Huntington, WV

GPA: 3.7

STUDENT TEACHING

Cammack Elementary, Huntington, WV

Student Teacher, January 2005 - April 2005

- Teach all subjects to first grade students in small neighborhood school.
- Plan and present units on "Weather" and "Presidents."
- Participate in parent/teacher conferences and faculty senate meetings.
- Accompany class on field trips to art museum and television station.

Milton Elementary, Milton, WV

Student Teacher, March 2005 - May 2005

- Teach all subjects to fifth graders in consolidated rural/suburban school.
- Develop and teach units on "Solar System" and "North American Indians."
- Design and utilize bulletin boards and learning centers.
- Participate in Parents' Night and parent/teacher conferences.

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

River Cities Child Development Center, Huntington, WV

Child Care Aide, December 2002 - Present

- Supervise daily activities of kindergarten students in daycare setting.
- Plan and implement educational, recreational, and art programs.
- Prepare and serve nutritional snacks; clean up kitchen and play area.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Marshall University Dean's List
- Underwood-Smith Academic Scholarship
- University Honors Program
- Delta Zeta Sorority

REFERENCES

Available upon request from Marshall University Career Services, (304) 696-2370