

OBJECTIVE

Position with the West Virginia State Police Forensic Laboratory

SKILLS

- Three years experience working in medical/science environments.
- Excellent computer skills using Cytoscription, DNA Perspective, Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point.
- Strong attention to detail; precise and timely in work assignments.
- Dedicated worker with record of continual advancement to higher levels of responsibilities.

EDUCATION

B.S., ISAT: Biotechnology, Minor: Criminal Justice December 2004
Marshall University, Huntington, WV. GPA: 3.92, Major GPA: 4.00

INTERNSHIP

Cytology Lab Assistant January 2004 - May 2004
St. Mary's Medical Center, Huntington, WV

- Prepared blood slides for type analysis and DNA testing
- Created and maintained detailed records of testing processes

WORK EXPERIENCE

Crime Lab Assistant/Summers May 2003, 2004
West Virginia State Police, Winfield, WV

- Performed DNA sequence analyses
- Prepared DNA reports for potential trial presentations

Student Lab Assistant August 2002 - February 2003
Marshall University College of Science, Huntington, WV

- Oversaw inventory of lab supplies
- Prepared slides for blood-typing tests for cytology lab classes
- Proctored lab tests, assisted students as needed

Recreation Assistant August 2000 - August 2002
River Park Hospital, Huntington, WV

- Supervised patients during recreation periods
- Escorted patients to psychiatric and observation appointments

ACTIVITIES AND HONORS

- Marshall Univeresity Dean's List, all semesters
- John Marshall Scholar
- Carter Woodson Scholarship
- American Academy of Forensic Sciences
- Marshall Jazz Ensemble
- Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

REFERENCES

Available upon request from the Marshall University Career Services Center,
(304) 696-2370