

NEW for Faculty & Staff

Connect with Career Services through Your Own Marshall JobTrax Account

What is Marshall Jobtrax?

It is an online local and national job database and career management system just for the Marshall community

It is a valuable resource to connect Marshall students, alumni, faculty and staff to employers and employment opportunities

Why should you use Marshall JobTrax?

- Assist students with part-time, full-time and internship job search
- Research local, regional, national and international employers
- Use the Resource tab to explore individual career trends, salaries, projected growth and outlook, skills needed, and more
- Stay up to date on Career Services sponsored events
- Become a professional mentor to Marshall students

To register, go to www.marshall.edu/jobtrax and click the Faculty box.

Complete and submit the registration form, confirm your email account and within 24 hours we will email log-in information to you. It's EASY, it's FREE and you will have access to hundreds of employers and job opportunities.
