

MINOR IN LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

Number of hours: 15

The schedule for Latin American Studies courses varies each semester.

Students must take 15 hours of the courses below in any combination.

PSC 411: Latin American Politics

GEO 408: Middle and South America

SPN 335: Latin America Culture and Civilization

SPN 411: Pre-Modern Latin American Literature

SPN 412: Contemporary Latin American Literature

SPN 413: Literary Genres and Non-Canonical Issues in Latin America

SPN 417/418: Hispanic Film and Literature

SPN 435: Contemporary Latin American Culture

HST 301: Latin America from Discovery to Independence

HST 302: Latin America from Independence to Present

HST 305: Drug Wars in the U.S. and Latin America

HST 423: U.S.-Latin American Relations

Please note that any 300 or 400 level special topics course related to Latin America is acceptable.

Students may also take as many of these as they like for credit for the minor.

Contact:

Dr. Chris White

Department of History

Harris Hall 112

X62722

whitec@marshall.edu