Attendance

Attendance will be taken at each session. You are allowed 2 personal days during the semester (on days that do not include your oral presentations). These absences do not include illnesses that require medical care or university-sponsored events. You are responsible for obtaining an excused absence from the Dean of Students in the case of illness or other university-excused reason for missing class. You do not need to contact your instructor to tell him/her that you are using the unexcused absence.

After hitting the limit on unexcused absences, you will lose -10 points off your total grade for each additional absence.

Also, you need to be to class on time. It is your responsibility to make sure that you are counted as attending if you come to class after attendance is taken. See your instructor after class to change your attendance status. Being late to class twice is equivalent to one unexcused absence.

You must attend the sessions you are scheduled to present. If you miss an oral presentation, you must have an excused absence to reschedule without penalty. If you miss your presentation day and do not have an excused absence, you will automatically be penalized one letter grade off your total score. You are expected to be ready to present upon return, and will be further penalized another letter grade for each session missed after your scheduled presentation date. Excused absences must be documented to the Dean of Students. Please feel free to check in with your instructor about attendance at any point in the semester. Also, please get the name and contact information of another student in order to obtain information on any missed course work or to obtain notes. You are not to email or ask the instructor what you missed.

Assignment Policies

You must present every assigned speech and presentation in front of a live audience to pass the class. Failure to present any of the assigned speeches in front of an audience will result in failing the course, regardless of total points earned.

Unless explicitly stated, written assignments will be submitted electronically via the drop box function on Blackboard. If you have trouble submitting via Blackboard, e-mail the assignment to the instructor before the deadline for full credit.

All assignments should be typed in 12-point font, double-spaced, with one inch margins on all sides.

Please proofread your work! Typos and grammatical errors may result in the lower grade on the assignment.

Late assignments will not be accepted for full credit unless the instructor has given prior consent. For every 24 hours that the assignment is late without the instructor's approval, the assignment grade will drop 20%. The assignment will not be accepted later than 5 business days after it is due.

Recording Policy: Each of your speeches will be recorded and uploaded to Blackboard for easy online access. Although many of us find seeing ourselves on video a disconcerting experience, it is an excellent way of improving your public speaking performances. We have an annual assessment program for our course, and your speech may be submitted to that assessment. If you object to your speech being submitted for confidential assessment, please let me know.

Questions about grades: All questions about graded assignments or exams must be brought to the instructor within one week of the day the grade is posted. Your instructor will schedule an appointment to discuss the assignment outside of class time. Class time is not to be used to discuss a grade nor should it be discussed right before mid term or final grades come out.

Consultations: Please do not wait until the night an assignment is due to realize that you are unsure of what is expected. Uncertainties can always exist. It is your instructor's intention to do everything s/he can to help you learn the material of the course. If you do not understand an assignment, ask. The excuse, "I didn't know what was expected," will not be accepted as justification of poor performance.

Email Policy

Email is the preferred medium for contacting your instructor. It should be used to set up appointments and ask short questions. The instructor will generally respond to your inquiry in one business day.

Classroom Policies

Let's make our classroom an oasis of civility. Please do not use your cell phone during class time. The only case when the use of cell phones in class is acceptable is an emergency that requires you to dial 911 or campus police. The first time you use your cell phone in class, I will ask you to put it away. Thereafter, I may ask you to leave class for the day and count it against your attendance record.

Students arriving late are not to disrupt presentations, but should remain quietly outside the classroom until the speaker is finished and you hear applause. Anyone needing to leave early should inform me before class, sit near the door, and leave in between presentations.

Academic Dishonesty

Plagiarism: Copying another's work without proper citation of the source constitutes plagiarism. Using a speech that someone else wrote is also plagiarism. Plagiarism in any form will not be tolerated. A student that is found plagiarizing another's work will automatically receive an "F" on the assignment and may be subject to further university discipline.

This policy includes “sharing” speeches across sections and semesters. We use Safe Assign and sample a large number of speech videos each semester to view for assessment. If it is discovered that two students have given the same exact speech, they will both be reported to the Dean of Students and further university discipline with the recommendation of suspension or expulsion from the university will be recommended.

Cheating: According to university policy, cheating is defined as the use of any unauthorized materials during an academic exercise that prohibits their use. Cheating also includes the viewing of another person’s work or securing any part of an assignment or examination in advance of distribution by the instructor. For this class, you are allowed to use all notes and course material when taking the reading quizzes. You are asked, however, to take the quizzes on your own and not copy anyone else’s work. Cheating will not be tolerated in this class and will result in an automatic “F” for your total quiz grade in the course.

You will NOT make fun of another student for their academic work, or be disrespectful to another student or the instructor for any reason, if so you will be asked to leave class.

Remember there are not dumb questions when pertaining to course work. Please DO NOT hesitate to ask either in class, by email, or after class. I am here to help.
