Textbook: Nosich, Gerald M., Sherry Diestler, Peter Facione, and Bruce N. Waller. FYS 100. Boston: Pearson Learning Solutions, 2011. Print.

Additional readings will be provided through Blackboard.

Students will learn critical thinking skills integral to life-long learning through discussion, interaction, discovery, problem-solving, writing, research, reflection, and examination of multicultural/international

Computer Requirements: Students must be able to effectively use the library's on-line research sites and be able to effectively load one of their documents into the GEAR Assessment program. All assignments must be typed.

(Who Done It? - COURSE OBJECTIVES) This Seminar will take a legal focus. Specifically, the class will analyze the legal system as it relates to the five FYS domains, the class objectives and the class assignments.

FYS Domains	Student Learning Outcomes	Practice of Desired Student Outcomes	Student Outcome Assessment
Information Literacy	You will revise your search strategies and employ appropriate research tools, integrate relevant information from reliable sources, question and evaluate the complexity of the information environment, and use information in an ethical manner.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Access a variety of databases such as EBSCOHost's Academic Search Premier, Lexis Nexis, Credo Literati, the CQ Researcher and more. – Locate and Evaluate research related to your assigned legal cases, and integrate them into your legal briefs and case presentations, using a proper citation format. – Integrate research from a variety of sources, to include legal documents, newspaper stories, journal articles, books and reliable websites. – Evaluate and Revise your material based on your expectations of the opposition's position. – Discuss such legal cases as the Scottsboro Boys, Chandra Levy Case, the Salem Witch Trials, and the Leo Frank Case. – Prepare and Present legal cases with attention to details and from an ethical approach. – Read Ch. 2 (CTIC): "Thinking Critically about Statistics" – Read Ch. 3 (CTIC): "The Power of Language" – Read On-Line material provided. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Preparation of two legal briefs (One for the defense and one for the prosecution) – Presentation of the material derived from the research as related to each case. – Two Exams – Final Critical Thinking Challenge
Integrative Thinking	You will make connections among varied disciplines, domains of thinking, experiences, and situations. You will Transfer skills and learning among varied disciplines, domains of thinking, experiences, and situations.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Connect a variety of disciplines through a variety of discussions such as Art and Criminals; Social Sciences and Sharia Law: Crime and Statistics: CSI and Science; and the historical and social aspects of specific criminal acts. – Prepare two legal cases that transfer the research completed into a comprehensive oral, visual, and written presentation. – Review On-Line Documents involving crime and criminal practice – Read Ch. 1 (CTIC): "What is Critical Thinking within a Field or Discipline?" – Read Ch. 5 (CTIC): "The Marshall Experience" – Read On-Line material provided. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Preparation of Modified Legal Brief – Development of two legal presentations – Two Exams – Final Critical Thinking Challenge
Intercultural Thinking	You will Evaluate generalizations about cultural groups, analyze how cultural beliefs might affect communication across cultures, evaluate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Examine your own cultural beliefs on issues such as ethnicity, religion, gender, age, and the media through in-class discussions, a speaker, a field trip to the Crime Scene House, video clips, classroom presentations, and two film documentaries. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Two Exams – Final Critical Thinking Challenge

	how specific approaches to global issues will affect multiple cultural communities, and untangle competing economic, religious, social or geographical interests of cultural groups in conflict.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Scrutinize such cultural issues as Sharia Law, Witchcraft, and mental illness. – Analyze the effect of cultural and historical beliefs on such things as religion, ethnicity, and socio-economic standing. – Review and Evaluate On-Line documents involving cultural differences in the law – Explore and Evaluate cases that have significantly contributed to our current cultural beliefs such as the Scottsboro Boys and the Salem Witch Trials. – Read Ch. 4 (Critical Thinking in College): “Snap Judgments: Heuristic Thinking” – Read On-Line material provided. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Jury Decisions and Discussions involving case presentations – Multi-Cultural Exercise involving taking a position in another country
Inquiry Based Thinking	You will formulate focused questions and hypotheses, evaluate existing knowledge, collect and analyze data, and draw justifiable conclusions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -- Formulate a position in two controversial legal cases --Evaluate existing material supporting your assigned position and the alternative position --Analyze data, and draw a justifiable conclusion for your assigned legal position. --Test your ability to anticipate those arguments that might be presented by the opposing side and present counter arguments in support of your position --Review and determine those witnesses that might be the most powerful in presenting your case and suggest what their testimony might include. --Engage in problem-solving activities that will require you to reason through multiple levels of inquiry. --Read Ch. 4 (Critical Thinking in College): “Snap Judgments: Heuristic Thinking” --Read On-Line material provided. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> --Two Exams --Final Critical Thinking Challenge --Preparation of Modified Legal Brief --Development of two legal presentations
Metacognitive Thinking	You will evaluate the effectiveness of your legal cases and strategies to determine the degree of improvement in your knowledge and skills.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> --Engage in reading and writing assignments that require you to consider how you learn, what you think and why you believe what you do. --Read On-Line material provided. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> --Review of your comments on your legal briefs --Review of your comments about your legal presentations --Review of the class determination of the effectiveness of your legal presentation --Reflection on GEAR upload

CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

DUE DATES: Assignments are due by midnight on the date and time indicated on the syllabus. Please submit assignments to Blackboard. Make sure to include your name on the actual assignment and that of your partner if the assignment is submitted as a joint effort. It is a good college practice to always keep copies of your work, both before and after grading, so as to avoid material getting lost in cyberspace.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: The semester will move very fast and it is difficult to stay on track unless you follow the syllabus closely. Assignments not received by the due date will be subject to a reduced grading scale. Assignments will not be accepted more than one class period late without special permission from the instructor.

ATTENDANCE: Attendance is required for the course according to University Policy. The policy states that a student that has more than three (3) Unexcused absences during the semester (1 ½ week of class) will expect the following consequences:

- Automatic one letter grade deduction
- Mandatory meeting with the instructor. If the student wishes the chance to redeem him/herself, he or she may submit a plan of improvement. If the plan of improvement is accepted by the instructor and implemented by the student, the student can potentially earn back the letter grade. Subsequent missed classes will result in additional letter grade deductions.

Excused absences fall into five categories:

1. University-sponsored activities: academic activities (e.g., performing arts, debate, honors classes, ROTC, and departmental functions); official athletic events sponsored by the Athletic Department; and university activities (e.g., student government and student organizations)
2. Student Illness or Critical Illness/Death in the Immediate Family
"Immediate Family" is defined as a spouse/life partner, child, parent, legal guardian, sibling, grandparent or grandchild. Routine appointments are not excused. Appointments should be scheduled around your classes.
3. Short-Term Military Obligation
4. Jury Duty or Subpoena for Court Appearance
5. Religious Holidays

The student with excused absences has the following responsibility:

- Provide appropriate documentation to Dean of Student Affairs for excused absence. Learn how the process works here: http://www.marshall.edu/catalog/undergraduate/ug_10-11_published.pdf
- Request opportunity to complete missed work within one week of the absence
- Be aware that excessive absences—whether excused or unexcused—may affect your ability to earn a passing grade.
- Regardless of the nature of the excused absence, you are responsible for completing all coursework prior to the end of the semester.

STUDENTS with DISABILITIES: Marshall University is committed to an equal opportunity in education for all students, including those with physical, learning and psychological disabilities. University policy states that it is the responsibility of students with disabilities to contact the Office of Disabled Student Services (DSS) in Prichard Hall 117, phone 304 696-2271 to provide documentation of their disability. For more information, please visit <http://www.marshall.edu/disabled> or contact Disabled Student Services Office at Prichard Hall 11, phone 304-696-2271.

CLASSROOM RESPECT

Late Arrivals: Given the nature of the class, it is important that you arrive to class on time. Late arrivals can significantly distract the class and the instructor. If you must arrive late during a performance day, please wait until the speaker sits down before entering the classroom.

Cell Phones: Please turn off all cell phones before class starts. If you have an emergency call that you are expecting, please let the instructor know prior to the start of class.

Text Messaging: Please refrain from texting during class time. This is extremely distracting and disrespectful to the instructor and to other speakers, who expect your attention. Continual abuse of this policy may result in academic grade loss or even dismissal from the course.

Laptops: Feel free to bring a laptop to take notes during class BUT other uses of the computer such as e-mailing friends, gaming, or surfing the WEB for unrelated class material, may result in grade loss or class dismissal.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Plagiarism: Copying another's work without proper citation of the source constitutes plagiarism. Plagiarism in any form will not be tolerated. A student that is found plagiarizing another's work will automatically receive an "F" in the course and may be subject to further university discipline.

Cheating: According to university policy, cheating is defined as the use of any unauthorized materials during an academic exercise to include notes, study aids etc. Cheating also includes the viewing of another person's work or securing any part of an assignment or examination in advance of distribution by the instructor. Cheating will not be tolerated in this class and will result in an automatic "F" for the class and the possible recommendation of suspension or expulsion from the university.

OTHER UNIVERSITY POLICIES

By enrolling in this course, you agree to the University Policies listed below. Please read the full text of each policy at http://www.marshall.edu/academic-affairs/?page_id=802

Students with Disabilities | Affirmative Action | Computing Services Acceptable Use | Dead Week | Excused Absences (undergraduate) | Academic Dishonesty | Inclement Weather | MU Alert | Academic Dismissal | Academic Forgiveness | Academic Probation and Suspension | Academic Rights and Responsibilities of Students | Sexual Harassment

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

University Required - Reading/Writing minimums and maximums

- Total reading for the semester should be 480-720 pages
- Total writing for the semester should be 16-24 pages.

Exam 1 & 2: The exams will consist of twenty essay questions given in advance. The questions will largely involve critical thinking and applying theory to “real life” situations. On the day of the exam, twelve questions will be randomly drawn and ten of the twelve questions drawn will be answered by each student. No surprises! 😊😊

2 @ 20% = 40% of the final grade

Prosecution & Defense Briefs: Each brief will be a minimum of twelve (12) pages long (double-spaced) and include a synopsis of the case; a list of potential witnesses; a list of the major arguments that support the specific position with documented support; a list of expected counter arguments and the expected response to each; a discussion of any additional relevant material; photos of the exhibits; a conclusion and a complete bibliography of properly cited sources. Each brief should contain no less than twelve (12) reliable sources.

All briefs must properly cite sources throughout the document in either APA or MLA style formats. More information on these style guides are found on the Marshall University library page and on the Purdue Owl site (<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>)

Please note that the synopsis of the case is NOT the same as the oral opening statement nor is the oral closing statement the same as the conclusion. Although some of the same information should be included, the introduction and conclusion should not be read as a substitute for the presentation.

Samples of past student briefs will be shared on Blackboard. The final brief grade will be shared by the partners, provided a significant contribution was made by both. Students failing to contribute a significant portion to the brief will receive a “0” on this assignment. Students will be asked to indicate the percent of partner contribution.

Students not assigned a partner that must complete a legal brief on their own will receive a half of a letter grade (5 points) added to their brief grade.

2 @ 15% = 30% of the final grade

Presentation of the Case: Students will orally present both their prosecution and defense cases. The presentation should provide visual aids where appropriate. Please feel free to enhance your presentation with the use of PowerPoint slides representing any exhibits, timeframes, etc. The remainder of the class will serve as the jury, in determining the winner of each case. The presentation grades will be assigned individually to each partner by the instructor. It is important that both partners work together to provide a consistent and comprehensive presentation of their case. Each presentation will be between 5-8 minutes long. Students without partners will receive their highest of the two presentation grades, for the case in which they argue both positions.

2 @ 10% = 20% of the final grade

Final – Critical Thinking Challenge: Students will analyze a critical thinking scenario and use the documents provided to complete their response to the scenario. Additional information will be provided throughout the class. The scenario will be similar to the one completed during WOW weekend.

10% of the final grade

Classroom Courtroom Presentation:

Prosecution – Partner 1 - Opening Statement (5-8 minutes)

- Introduce the case with a general overview of the facts
- Explain the facts as they relate to the prosecution’s perspective
- Anticipate the arguments to be raised by the defense and any appropriate response
- State the prosecution’s major arguments with appropriate support

Defense – Partner 1 – Opening Statement (5-8 minutes)

- Clearly state the defense’s perspective of the specified facts
- Respond to the Prosecution’s major arguments
- State the defense’s major arguments with relevant support

Prosecution – Partner 2- Closing Statement (5-8 minutes)

- Respond to the major arguments made by the Defense
- Reiterate the arguments of the Prosecution with support
- Provide a closing statement that details the facts and evidence based on the Prosecution’s perspective

Defense – Partner 2 Closing Statement (5-8 minutes)

- Respond to the major arguments made by the Prosecution
- Reiterate the arguments of the Defense with support
- Provide a closing statement that details the facts and evidence based on the Defense’s perspective
