(Who Done It? - COURSE OBJECTIVES) This Seminar will take a legal focus. Specifically, the class will analyze crimes and the people that commit them; you will have an opportunity to both defend and prosecute these individuals, as part of a mock trial. We will explore each of the FYS domains as they relate to crimes and criminals. Additionally, as part of a learning community, this course will examine the judicial branch of government which is responsible for applying the laws to cases brought before it. The Political Science course, in which you are enrolled, will examine the legislative branch of government, which is responsible for enacting the laws.

Consider the alignment of the learning outcomes:

CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

DUE DATES: Assignments are due at midnight on the date indicated on the syllabus. Please submit assignments directly to Blackboard. If you are unfamiliar with Blackboard, please notify the instructor and she will walk you through it. Make sure to include your name on the actual assignment and that of your partner if the assignment is submitted as a joint effort. Please note, if the due date and time has passed, YOU WILL NOT be able to submit your assignment to Blackboard.

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION: It is a good college practice to always keep copies of your work, both before and after grading, as assignments often get lost in cyberspace. ☺☺ Always include your name on the actual assignment before submitting it to Blackboard.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: The semester will move very fast and it is difficult to stay on track unless you follow the syllabus closely. Assignments not received by the due date will be subject to a reduced grading scale. Assignments will not be accepted late without special permission from the instructor prior to the due date.

ATTENDANCE: Attendance is required for the course according to University Policy. The policy states that a student that has more than three (3) Unexcused absences during the semester (1 ½ week of class) will expect the following consequences:

- Automatic one letter grade deduction
- Mandatory meeting with the instructor. If the student wishes the chance to redeem him/herself, he or she may submit a plan of improvement. If the plan of improvement is accepted by the instructor and implemented by the student, the student can potentially earn back the letter grade. Subsequent missed classes will result in additional letter grade deductions.

Excused absences fall into five categories:

1. University-sponsored activities: academic activities (e.g., performing arts, debate, honors classes, ROTC, and departmental functions); official athletic events sponsored by the Athletic Department; and university activities (e.g., student government and student organizations)
2. Student Illness or Critical Illness/Death in the Immediate Family

"Immediate Family" is defined as a spouse/life partner, child, parent, legal guardian, sibling, grandparent or grandchild. *Routine appointments are not excused. Appointments should be scheduled around your classes.
3. Short-Term Military Obligation
4. Jury Duty or Subpoena for Court Appearance
5. Religious Holidays

The student with excused absences has the following responsibility:

- Provide appropriate documentation to Dean of Student Affairs for excused absence. Learn how the process works here: http://www.marshall.edu/catalog/undergraduate/ug\_10-11\_published.pdf
- Request opportunity to complete missed work within one week of the absence
- Be aware that excessive absences—whether excused or unexcused—may affect your ability to earn a passing grade.
- Regardless of the nature of the excused absence, you are responsible for completing all coursework prior to the end of the semester.

STUDENTS with DISABILITIES: Marshall University is committed to an equal opportunity in education for all students, including those with physical, learning and psychological disabilities. University policy states that it is the responsibility of students with disabilities to contact the Office of Disabled Student Services (DSS) in Prichard Hall 117, phone 304 696-2271 to provide documentation of their disability. For more information, please visit <http://www.marshall.edu/disabled> or contact Disabled Student Services Office at Prichard Hall 11, phone 304-696-2271.

CLASSROOM RESPECT

Late Arrivals: Given the nature of the class, it is important that you arrive to class on time. Late arrivals can significantly distract the class and the instructor. If you must arrive late during a performance day, please wait until the speaker sits down before entering the classroom.

Cell Phones: Please make sure that all cell phones are turned off before class starts. If you have an emergency call that you are expecting, please let the instructor know prior to the start of class.

Text Messaging: Please refrain from texting during class time. This is extremely distracting and disrespectful to the instructor and to other speakers, who expect your attention. Continual abuse of this policy may result in academic grade loss or even dismissal from the course.

Laptops: Feel free to bring a laptop to take notes during class BUT other uses of the computer such as e-mailing friends, gaming, or surfing the WEB for unrelated class material, may result in class dismissal.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Plagiarism: Copying another's work without proper citation of the source constitutes plagiarism. Plagiarism in any form will not be tolerated. A student that is found plagiarizing another's work will automatically receive an "F" in the course and may be subject to further university discipline.

Cheating: According to university policy, cheating is defined as the use of any unauthorized materials during an academic exercise to include notes, study aids etc. Cheating also includes the viewing of another person's work or securing any part of an assignment or examination in advance of distribution by the instructor. Cheating will not be tolerated in this class and will result in an automatic "F" for the class and the possible recommendation of suspension or expulsion from the university.

Internet Answers: Please note that in the absence of a textbook, material will be placed on Blackboard for you to read. Answers acquired on the internet for test questions are often wrong. Please use the material provided by the instructor.

OTHER UNIVERSITY POLICIES

By enrolling in this course, you agree to the University Policies listed below. Please read the full text of each policy at http://www.marshall.edu/academic-affairs/?page\_id=802

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

University Required - Reading/Writing minimums and maximums

- Total reading for the semester should be 480-720 pages
- Total writing for the semester should be 16-24 pages.

Exam 1 & 2: The exams will consist of twenty essay questions given in advance. The questions will largely involve critical thinking and applying theory to “real life” situations. On the day of the exam, twelve questions will be randomly drawn and ten of the twelve questions drawn will be answered by each student. No surprises! ☺☺ @ 20% = 40% of the final grade

Prosecution & Defense Briefs: Each brief should be ten (10) to twelve (12) pages long (double-spaced) and include a synopsis of the case, a list of potential witnesses, a list of the major arguments that support the specific position with required documentation, a list of expected counter arguments and the anticipated response, a discussion of any additional relevant material, photos of the exhibits with documentation, a conclusion and a complete bibliography of properly cited sources. Each brief should contain no less than twelve (12) reliable sources. All briefs must properly cite sources throughout the document in either APA or MLA style formats. Keep in mind that the synopsis of the case is not the same as the oral opening statement, nor is the oral closing statement the same as the conclusion. Although some of the same information should be included, the introduction and conclusion should not be read as a substitute for the presentation.

Please note that all Legal Briefs are due at midnight of the first day of presentations, regardless of when the actual student presentation occurs. This keeps the assignment fair for everyone.

Samples of past student briefs will be shared on Blackboard. The final brief grade will be shared by the partners; provided a significant contribution was made by both. Students failing to contribute a significant portion to the brief will receive a “0” on this assignment. Students will be asked to indicate the percent of partner contribution.

Students not assigned a partner that must complete a legal brief on their own will receive a half of a letter grade (5 points) added to their brief grade. 2 @ 15% = 30% of the final grade

Presentation of the Case: Students will orally present both their prosecution and defense cases. The presentation should provide visual aids where appropriate. The remainder of the class will serve as the jury, in determining the winner of each case; these decisions will not affect the student’s grade. The presentation grades will be assigned individually to each partner. It is important that both partners work together to provide a consistent and comprehensive presentation of their case. Each presentation will be between 5-8 minutes long.

See the next page for a description of what should be included in each presentation.

Students without partners will receive their highest of their two presentation grades, for the case in which they argue both positions. 2 @ 10% = 20% of the final grade

Final – Critical Thinking Challenge: Students will analyze a critical thinking scenario and use the documents provided to complete their response to the scenario. Additional information will be provided throughout the class. The scenario will be similar to the one completed during WOW weekend. A rubric for the final is attached. 10% of the final grade
