

Sarah Denman Faces of Appalachia Fellowship Award*

2015 – 2016 Academic Year

The purpose of this fellowship award, sponsored by the Center for the Study of Ethnicity and Gender in Appalachia (CSEGA), is to promote scholarship on gender and/or ethnicity in Appalachia. The fellowship is awarded annually to a full-time Marshall University faculty member. The Sarah Denman Faces of Appalachia Fellow, who is selected by the CSEGA Advisory Board and announced at the annual spring faculty meeting, receives a $3,000 cash award as well as $3,600 toward six hours of reassigned time during the fellowship year—the school year following the award announcement. Reassigned time is scheduled in coordination with department chairs and college deans. Fellows present their scholarship to the Marshall community in the spring of their fellowship year (spring, 2016).

Application Process

Marshall faculty members interested in being considered for the fellowship award should submit a professional vita along with a 1-2 page abstract of the proposed project. The research, which must emphasize ethnicity and/or gender in Appalachia, may be a new project or a continuation of a project already underway.

Please send application materials by email to Mary Thomas at mthomas@marshall.edu by Thursday, December 16, 2014. The award winner, as well as other applicants, will be notified early in the spring, 2015 semester.
