Residency Requirements Suggested Format for the Portfolio Plan

Name:	Date:
Chair:
Anticipated date for oral defense of po	tfolio:
program that documents collaboration with fact maintain continuous enrollment as defined in the Student/Faculty Seminars. This is a planning document, to be used in seleportfolio requirement. Changes may be made a opportunities for involvement in scholarly activity planning the portfolio. The overall breadth and requirements of the portfolio. Elements of the portfolio should not be limited should include experiences with other faculty in Where possible, the elements of the portfolio sfor the student's growth and development in the limited should include experiences with other faculty in the student's growth and development in the limited should include experiences of the portfolio. I. Portfolio and reflections format — plan on the format to be used to collect reflections on the activities in the plan. defense of the portfolio. The format of the powerPoint presentation, an electronic The student will be expected to present connections of the student's experience personal and professional growth are of the faculty at least one week in advance th	the program, and is expected to attend all Doctoral ecting anticipated elements in fulfillment of the at any time, in collaboration with the chair, as ities may arise which were not known at the time of depth of experiences must continue to fulfill the to activities in collaboration with the chair, but members. Should be built around a common theme, providing the discipline. At this point, the student should begin to and present the documentation and This forms a preliminary plan for the oral the portfolio may be a notebook, a portfolio, etc. It and defend a brief paper in which the tes in the doctoral program to his or her discussed. This paper will be provided to the of the portfolio defense. The paper should take no more than 15 togue with the faculty on the student's Rationale/theme for selections:

II. Scl activiti	holarship - The portfolio must include at least one of the following es: A. Co-authoring a proposal for submission and co-presenting at a regional or national conference in collaboration with a faculty member.
	regional of national conference in collaboration with a faculty member.
	B. Co-authoring and submitting for publication a manuscript to a peer reviewed/referred journal, a book, or a book chapter, in collaboration with a faculty member.
	ner professional/academic pursuits – The portfolio must include at least two of	the following activities: A. Co-teaching a course with a faculty member

В.	Serving an appropriate internship involving an mentor on the program faculty	n outside mentor and a
C.	Developing a course in collaboration with a fa	aculty member
D.	Collaborating with faculty member in another advance by the student's committee	activity, approved in
Approval to	proceed: Signature	Date
Student
Member
Member
Member		