

Professor Graham Crow

Deputy Director
National Centre for Research Methods
University of Southampton
United Kingdom

April 18: Huntington campus
April 19: South Charleston campus

INNOVATIVE METHODS COMMUNITY STUDIES COLLABORATIVE RESEARCH

Please join us for the following talks and discussions facilitated by Professor Crow, Deputy Director of the U.K.'s Economic and Social Research Council National Centre for Research Methods:

- April 18: > "What is Methodological Innovation and Why Does it Matter?" Presentation to Sociology & Anthropology students, 4 p.m., Smith Hall 531
- > "Community and Social Divisions" Discussion of shifts in the scholarly meanings of "community," 7 p.m., at the home of Dr. Brian Hoey (participants will read a selection from Crow's writings). Space is limited (see reservation information below).
- April 19: > "The National Centre for Research Methods: Developing Research Methods Across Disciplinary Boundaries." GSEPD Brown Bag, 12 noon, Graduate College (GC) 116.
- > "On Democratizing Social Research." Student & faculty discussion of participatory and community-university collaborative research. 1 p.m., GC 308 (Thomas Board Room). A lunch will be served. Space is limited (see reservation information below).

For more information or to make reservations, contact Dr. Luke Eric Lassiter, Graduate Humanities Program, lassiter@marshall.edu; 304-746-1923. PLEASE MAKE RESERVATIONS BY APRIL 16.

Professor Crow's visit is collaboratively sponsored by the Graduate School of Education and Professional Development, College of Liberal Arts, Graduate Humanities Program, and Department of Sociology & Anthropology.

