

The MU Graduate Humanities Program presents . . .

DR. LAUREN ONKEY

Vice President of Education & Public Programs
Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and Museum

Please join us for Dr. Onkey's two public talks at West Virginia State University and Marshall University:

Thursday, Feb. 26, 2015: "Stevie Wonder's Social Vision." WVSU, 122 Wallace Hall, 12:30 p.m.
Reception by Blues BBQ.

Friday, Feb. 27, 2015: "Dancing in the Street: Rock and Roll and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1964." Marshall University Student Center, BE5, 2 p.m.

Dr. Onkey's Graduate Humanities seminar, "Fight the Power," is a Graduate Humanities Program Spring 2015 Major Scholar Seminar. For more information, see <http://www.marshall.edu/graduatehumanities/>.

Dr. Onkey's visit is sponsored by Marshall University's Graduate Humanities Program, College of Liberal Arts, and the Departments of History, Political Science, and Psychology; West Virginia State University Cultural Affairs Committee; and the Glenwood Center for Scholarship in the Humanities.
