

Application

Paul J. Mayer Leadership West Virginia Scholarship

This scholarship is established to honor Paul J. Mayer, Executive Director of Leadership West Virginia, whose efforts to encourage the development and exercise of leadership and to promote the State of West Virginia are exemplary.

This one-year award of $500 will go to a West Virginia resident who is a full-time student and will be a junior in the fall 2016 semester in a four-year program of study at Marshall University. The recipient must have demonstrated leadership during his/her college career in a significant way, either to Marshall University or to the greater community, or a combination thereof.

RETURN THIS COMPLETED FORM TO:

honorscollege@marshall.edu or

Honors College
230 Old Main
Marshall University
Huntington, West Virginia 25755

Deadline: March 15, 2016

Applicant

Name _____
Last First MI

Student ID# _____ Email _____

Permanent Address _____
Street /or PO Box

City State Zip Phone

Local Address _____
Street/or PO Box

City State Zip Phone

Major _____

Career Plans

Please describe your college leadership experiences and volunteer service. Include dates of involvement for each. Add pages as necessary.

University

Community

Volunteer Services

Honors/Awards/Special Achievements (Include the name of award/achievement, date received and a brief description for each)

State your most significant accomplishments in a leadership role.

Signature

Date