JOB SUMMARY

The Receiving Inventory Assistant Lead performs a variety of shipping and receiving tasks including verifying materials received are as ordered, routing incoming items to appropriate institutional locations, and preparing items for shipment.

NATURE OF WORK

The Receiving Inventory Assistant Lead is responsible for tracking inventory levels, handling all aspects of shipping and receiving, and keeping accurate records to accurately maintain the institution's equipment inventory. Additional responsibilities include functioning as a team leader and/or senior resource to lower-level Receiving Inventory Assistants assigned to the unit. Job responsibilities require strong interpersonal and communication (verbal and written) skills, as well as the ability to organize priorities and multi-task. Work is performed under immediate supervision, and primarily consists of tasks that are routine, or well-defined, with specific instructions to achieve standards. The Receiving Inventory Assistant Lead exercises some judgment in planning and organizing own work but must adhere to specific time, process, and results standards. Decisions are limited to the application of standardized or accepted practices and errors could result in some costs and inconveniences within the affected area.
