

Marshall University Educational Equivalency Form

Instructions:

The information requested in the form below is required of all applicants who do not possess the stated minimum educational qualifications and are pursuing consideration on the basis of "significant job related experience". Candidates making application on the basis of work experience shall submit this form as well as all other materials specified under Job Description on the job posting. Additional pages may be attached supporting your responses below.

Your completed application and form may be submitted to the Director of Human Resource Services for the position listed for review. If the HR Director determines your work experience/qualifications are considered equivalent to the specified minimum educational qualifications, then your application for the position will be forwarded to the chair of the search committee for consideration. Please note: the completion of this form does not guarantee equivalency. If equivalency is denied, you will not be considered as a qualified candidate for this position and there is no appeals process available.
