Applies to:	Marshall University
Title:	Alternate Assignment - Faculty Competitive Fellowships
Number:	43
Effective Date:	12/01/06
Last Revision Date:

Faculty members who are awarded competitive fellowships or similar honors (e.g., Fulbright Fellowship) may require a period of absence from Marshall University herein characterized as an alternate assignment. During such alternate assignment the faculty member will be eligible upon written request to the President and with the concurrence of the Senior Vice President, Academic Affairs, and Provost, to have the University remit the employer's portion of the PEIA group health insurance premium for that faculty member during the period of his/her alternate assignment. The duration of the University's remittance of the employer portion of the PEIA premium during such alternate assignment, however, shall not exceed 12 months.

Questions on the application and interpretation of this policy and procedure should be directed to the chief human resources officer.
