

TWENTY YEARS SINCE THE FALL OF THE BERLIN WALL:

1989

2009

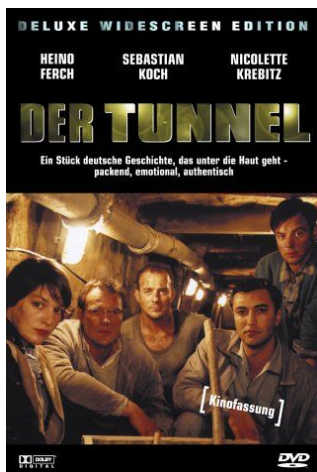

A COMMEMORATION

Mon, NOV.9 & Tues, NOV. 10, 2009
@ 3:30 pm DRINKO LIBRARY AUDITORIUM #402

FREE video & movie presentation & German snacks. Everyone is welcome.

Monday, Nov. 9, 3:30 pm: “As It Happened - November 9, 1989”

A video presentation of the news of that day, and a panel presentation covering an overview of the events leading up to and the aftermath of the fall of the Berlin Wall

Tuesday, Nov. 10, 3:30 pm: Der Tunnel (2001)

A gripping escape plan provides the narrative spine to The Tunnel, an exciting Cold War story. This film fictionalizes the true story of the digging of a 430-foot tunnel running under the Berlin Wall in 1961-62, as tunnel rats on the west side labor to find a way out for friends and family in the Communist East.

In German with English subtitles (157 min.)

© Copyright 2001 Swank Motion Pictures, Inc.

Organized with support from the Department of Modern Languages and sponsored by the Center for International Programs @ Marshall University

Contact: Dr. Christopher Dolmetsch, dolmetsc@marshall.edu, 696-2744, SH 432