News: The Offer Survey

Friday, November 6, 2009

For the third consecutive year, MU-ADVANCE administered an Offer Survey to evaluate recruitment practices at Marshall. The survey, which generated a 100% return, was sent to the new STEM faculty hires for the 2009-10 academic year. More...

Meet the Visiting Faculty: Dr. Angela Kelling

Dr. Angela Kelling is a Visiting Professor in the Department of Psychology. Prior to coming to Marshall, Dr. Kelling was a Visiting Professor of Psychology at Kennesaw State University, in Kennesaw, Georgia. Her research interests include improving the lives of animals in captivity through enrichment and environmental design. She is also interested in comparative perception and cognition. Currently, Dr. Kelling teaches Psychology of Adjustment and Psychometrics. More...

Resource: Search Committee Brochure

MU-ADVANCE developed the "Search Committee Strategies and Guidelines" brochure as a tool to assist in eliminating gender bias during the search process. In addition, this brochure outlines the search process from building the committee to creating a short-list to selecting a candidate. Hard copies are available in the MU-ADVANCE office (S-200A).

Recommendations or suggestions for additional resources for the MU-ADVANCE Office can be sent to Heidi Williams: (willi143@marshall.edu).
