News: Resources Across Campus

Friday, November 14, 2008

As an academic, you probably like to have useful resources at your fingertips. Resources that may contribute to writing, research, teaching, faculty development, etc., may be found in several campus offices, including MU-ADVANCE's Resource Page , CATL's Lending Library , and WAC which provides links to the WAC Journal and online Rubric Creator.

Meet the Mentor: Dr. Marianna Footo-Linz

Dr. Marianna Footo-Linz is a Professor of Psychology and is the Program Coordinator of the Psy.D. Program at Marshall. In this role, she is responsible for a variety of tasks, including student recruitment and practicum placements. In addition, she serves as a mentor for Dr. Wendy Williams, a MU-ADVANCE Faculty Fellow. Dr. Footo-Linz meets weekly with Dr. Williams to help her navigate her through the duties and procedures of being a junior faculty member. More...

Resource: 2009 Teaching and Learning Conferences

MU's Center for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning has created and posted a list of 2009 conferences, both regional and national, that address teaching and learning in higher education. If you know of additional meetings that may be of interest to MU faculty and/or administrators, please alert CATL [catl@marshall.edu or 696-2206].

Recommendations or suggestions for additional resources for the MU-ADVANCE Office can be sent to Heidi Williams: (willi143@marshall.edu).
