News: The Follow-Up Survey

Friday, December 5, 2008

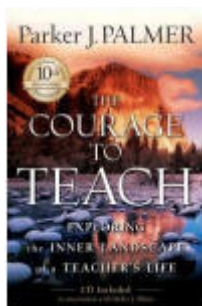

This summer, a follow-up survey was administered to the STEM faculty hired in Fall 2007. Five respondents identified areas MU excels in, such as collegiality, as well as areas that need improvement relative to a faculty member's first year on campus. More information...

Meet the Faculty: Dr. Xiaojuan "Judy" Fan

Dr. Xiaojuan "Judy" Fan is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Physics and Physical Science. Prior to coming to Marshall, Dr. Fan was a Research Specialist at the University of California at Santa Cruz. Her research interests include photovoltaics and photocatalysis; nanoporous structure and nanotechnology; and chemical sensing and biomaterial detection. Currently, Dr. Fan teaches Conceptual Physics and General Physics. More information...

Library Resource: The Courage To Teach

"The Courage to Teach: Exploring the Inner Landscape of a Teacher's Life," follows the author's journey as he discovers his personal art of teaching. This resource will help you uncover an authentic place within yourself, from which you can reclaim your passion for teaching. The book is available for loan in the MU-ADVANCE office (S-200A).

Recommendations or suggestions for additional resources for the MU-ADVANCE Office can be sent to Heidi Williams: willi143@marshall.edu.
