News: Policy Update

Friday, February 20, 2009

In response to faculty concerns about the tenure and promotion process, MU-ADVANCE drafted two policies and submitted them to the Faculty Senate. Currently under review, the Modified Duties and Pre-Tenure Review policies could benefit all tenure-track faculty. More information...

Meet the Faculty: Dr. Leslie Frost

Dr. Leslie Frost is an Associate Professor in the Department of Chemistry. Her research focuses on the use of biological mass spectrometry for the identification and analysis of peptides and proteins. Dr. Frost currently teaches Introduction to Biochemistry, lecture and lab; and Modern Instrument Methods, at both the undergraduate and graduate level. More information...

Resource: Married to the Job

In her essay "Married to the Job," Nancy Gibbs discusses worker distress in the midst of a recession, especially among females. When job security become precarious and the threat of unemployment looms, anxiety begins to creep into the workplace. Read the article to see how this affects attitudes concerning personal needs, such as maternity leave or the routine doctor's visit.
