News: Stimulus Program

Friday, April 17, 2009

The Higher Education Policy Commission (HEPC) will oversee funds allocated to WV through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), better known as the Stimulus Program. The HEPC website lists information about ARRA and potential funding opportunities. More...

Meet the Vice Chancellor: Dr. Paul Hill

Dr. Paul Hill has been instrumental in building research and development initiatives in the state of West Virginia. In his role as the Vice Chancellor for the WV Higher Education Policy Commission, as well as the Executive Director for the WV Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR), he has helped WV institutions apply for, win, and sustain grant monies to further both higher education and statewide research goals. Resource: Top Ten List: University Contacts

MU-ADVANCE has generated a reference list of the Top Ten contacts for the university. This guide can be printed and tacked to your office wall to help you quickly find relevant contact information. This list was designed to save you time when you have questions concerning payroll, benefits, travel, or even how to get a light bulb replaced. More top ten lists and resources...

Recommendations or suggestions for additional resources for the MU-ADVANCE Office can be sent to Heidi Williams: (willi143@marshall.edu).
