Dual Career Services Established at MU

Friday, May 2, 2008

MU-ADVANCE has worked to establish dual career resources at Marshall. Offering such services as mock interviews and resume enhancement, we teamed with Career Services to aid the job searches of partners and spouses of new hires. More information...

Meet Administrative Partner Dr. Frances Hensley

Dr. Frances Hensley is the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and a MU-ADVANCE Administrative Partner. In her role as Vice President, she supervises curriculum development and instruction for many university entities. As part of the MU-ADVANCE Policy Change Committee, Dr. Hensley has been instrumental in developing family-friendly policies. Additionally, she has directed these policies to the appropriate administrators to steer them toward implementation. More...

Resource: "I'm Your Millstone"

"I'm Your Millstone," published in the Chronicle of Higher Education, explores the subject of dual career couples. How important and beneficial is it for universities to pay attention to the partners of new hires? The article examines various issues, including the preconceived notions that are typical, but not always true, of a department that obtains the "trailing" spouse of a coveted hire.

Recommendations or suggestions for additional resources for the MU-ADVANCE Office can be sent to Heidi Williams: willi143@marshall.edu.
