Meet the New Faculty: Dr. Angela Crews

Dr. Angela Crews has joined the Criminal Justice Department as an Associate Professor. Prior to coming to Marshall, Dr. Crews was an Associate Professor of Criminal Justice at Washburn University in Topeka, Kansas. Currently, Dr. Crews is co-authoring a book on juvenile delinquency and violence in the United States. This fall, she is teaching Introduction to Corrections, Applied Ethics, and Criminal Justice Planning. More...

Library Resource: Ms. Mentor's Impeccable Advice for Women in Academia

"Ms. Mentor's Impeccable Advice for Women in Academia," by Emily Toth, uses humor and real-life experiences to openly discuss issues in higher education that are often fraught with dread and uncertainty. Using a question-and-answer format, this book sheds light on topics that often are avoided. The book is available for loan in the MU-ADVANCE office (S-200A).

Recommendations or suggestions for additional resources for the MU-ADVANCE Office can be sent to Heidi Williams: (willi143@marshall.edu).
