The Young Writers Contest Plagiarism Policy and

Teachers: Please share this important information with students and parents:

Plagiarism is using part or all of someone else's work and taking credit for it as your own. It is unethical behavior. The Young Writers Contest rules follow Marshall University's policy against plagiarism. In accordance with this policy, all winning Young Writer entries will be submitted to the anti-plagiarism site www.turnitin.com. The penalty for plagiarism is notification of the sponsoring teacher and expulsion from the contest. If you wish more information about Marshall University's strict plagiarism policy for MU students, visit Marshall's Anti-Plagiarism Policy http://www.marshall.edu/muonline/plagiarism.asp.

A basic rule for students is: Do not cut and paste or copy anything written by another person or online. Write everything in your own words, always.
