

SCHOOL OF NURSING

Admission Policy

It is the policy of Marshall University to provide equal opportunities to all prospective and current members of the student body on the basis of individual qualifications and merit without regard to race, color, sex, religion, age, handicap, national origin, or sexual orientation.

All students must be physically and emotionally able to meet the requirements of each nursing course, and, therefore, the requirements of the nursing program. Consistent with applicable statutes, the School of Nursing will make every effort to make reasonable accommodations in its course delivery to insure that students with disabilities receive equal treatment.

During the course of the nursing education program, students may be exposed to potentially infectious situations. Students with or who develop compromised health status should discuss their health risks with their health care provider.
