

Mark S. Taylor Memorial Scholarship

1. The Marshall University Foundation, Inc. has established a fund known as the Mark S. Taylor Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship was created by Huntington Physical Therapy in 2024 in memory of Mark Taylor to support Physical Therapy students who are residents of West Virginia. Mark was a physical therapist and dedicated member of the HPT professional staff for 38 years, until his passing on April 21, 2021.
2. The income, determined by the spending policy established by The Marshall University Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors, shall support this annual award. The fund will be managed in a manner consistent with the provisions of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as adopted by the State of West Virginia. Additional contributions may be added at any time.
3. The recipient(s) shall be a graduate student in the School of Physical Therapy who is a resident of West Virginia, with preference given to residents of Cabell and Wayne counties, and has financial need per the standards of the Office of Student Financial Assistance.

The award shall be renewable up to two years (4 semesters) if the recipient maintains good academic standing of 3.5 GPA or higher. The Dean of School of Therapy shall select the recipient and renew the award in cooperation with the Office of Student Financial Assistance. For the first TWO (2) years the annual award(s) shall total $5,000.00. Each year thereafter the award can be made up to the amount available in the expendable fund.

4. The Marshall University Foundation, Inc. accepts funds where selection of recipients is not based solely on any of the following criteria: race, gender, religion, handicap or national origin.
5. This fund will become endowed once a minimum of $25,000 is received. Should the endowment level not be reached or purpose for this fund no longer exist at Marshall University, or changes in the law impact the tax-exempt status of the Foundation, the Board of Directors of the Foundation may designate a purpose most consistent with the original intent of the donor.
