

MARSHALL'S STRATEGIC VISION - Our Bold Constellation for the Future

Develop new degree programs that increase enrollment and revenue

Status Update for:

Overview:

Invest in new academic programs that build on existing strengths, increase human intellectual capital, create public value and assist with state economic growth, increase student enrollment and revenue, and develop professional, master's and doctoral programs in selective, high-demand disciplines and career fields that create opportunities for economic development

June 2009 – MUBOG approves new bachelor's degree programs in Exercise Science, Athletic Training and Medical Imaging

May 2009 – Dr. Mary Todd named founding dean of MU Honors College

April 2009 – MUBOG approves the addition of a major in the Early Childhood Education Program

January 2009 - Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) intent to plan approved

2008- 2009 – New area of emphasis added in Digital Forensics

June 2008 – College of Business, CAMC offer doctoral program in Management Practice in Nurse Anesthesia

February 2006 - MUBOG approves bachelor's in engineering (BSE)

July 2006 – New bachelor's degree in applied science offered

To learn more visit this Strategic Initiative at:

<http://www.marshall.edu/president/strategic/Enrollment.asp>