

MARSHALL'S STRATEGIC VISION - Our Bold Constellation for the Future

Pilot the da Vinci Roundtable Project – Renaissance Professor Program

Status Update for:

Overview:

The conceptualization of this project centers on the development of a core group of faculty who have the potential to develop as Renaissance thinkers. The goal will be to develop a sufficient core group of individuals who can function as peer leaders in the furtherance of professional development that advances integrative and interdisciplinary thinking and learning at Marshall University.

----- March 2010 – Dr. Bonita Lawrence named Faculty Merit Foundation West Virginia Professor of the Year

----- February 2010 – Technology Summit

----- Fall 2009 - Campus Conversations begin

----- November 2009 – Faculty Senate passes New Core Curriculum

----- April 2009 – Faculty Senate Approves Core Foundations

----- November 2008 – Provost hosts Da Vinci Roundtable

----- Workshops with Dr. Linda Elder of the Critical Thinking Institute

----- March 2008 - Dr. Montserrat Miller named Faculty Merit Foundation West Virginia Professor of the Year

----- April 2008 - Charles E. Hedrick Outstanding Faculty Award presented to Dr. David Mills

----- April 2008 - Faculty Senate Ad Hoc Core Foundations Committee presents the “Domains” to the Faculty Senate

----- August 2007 – Faculty Senate Ad Hoc Core Foundations Committee presents “General Education at MU”

----- April 2007 - President Kopp – “Liberating the Creative Mind”

----- April 2007 - Charles E. Hedrick Outstanding Faculty Award presented to Dr. Montserrat Miller

----- Spring 2006 – Present Kopp presents the 21st Century Education Foundations to the Faculty Senate Ad Hoc Core Foundations Committee

To learn more visit this Strategic Initiative at:

<http://www.marshall.edu/president/strategic/DaVinci.asp>