Marshall University Network – MUNet 2017

---

The Marshall University Campus Network, MUNet, is a state-of-the-art 40 Gigabit switched Ethernet based backbone linking all buildings on the Huntington Campus with commercial WAN circuits to our regional campus, centers, and medical clinics. MUNet supports over 15,000-switched gigabit Ethernet ports and nearly 3,000 WiFi 802.11ac Wave 2 (predominantly) dual band wireless access points. Pervasive WiFi services is available in most campus buildings and residence halls.

A university owned metro fiber point-to-point service connects the Huntington campus to the Robert C. Byrd Center for Flexible Manufacturing and the Visual Arts Center in downtown Huntington.

The Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine (JCESOM) Campus adjacent to Cabell Huntington Hospital and the JCESOM Fairfield Campus, including the Erma Ora Byrd Clinical Center as well as the Forensic Science Center, are connected by a JCESOM owned metro fiber optic ring operating at 10 Gigabit. An additional JCESOM owned metro fiber optic ring links St. Mary's Medical Center and the St. Mary's Medical Education Center, also the location of the Marshall University Physical Therapy Doctoral Program, at 10 Gigabit and integrates to MUNet on the Huntington Campus. The WV Telehealth intra-carrier hub for Huntington is located in the Drinko library and connected to each of the JCESOM/WV Telehealth rings. These rings are planned and operated by Marshall University Information Technology in coordination with St. Mary's Medical Center, Cabell Huntington Hospital, and the Joan C. Edward School of Medicine.

The MUNet campus network connects to 4.0Gbps of commodity Internet Service provided by two diverse Internet Service Providers (LUMOS and OARnet). Marshall University is also a full member of Internet2 and provided Internet2 connectivity to all ports and WiFi access points. OARnet provides connectivity to Internet2. The MUNet and OARnet connection is via a 10 Gigabit diverse path fiber ring.

All MUNet service provides full Quality of Service (QoS) on all network ports and multicasting in support of voice, data, and video services and other real time applications. All services are switched and operate at full wire speeds.

MUNet supports full Voice over IP telephony services with unified communications and voice mail to over 4,300 extensions as well as a limited number of legacy FAX and other analog lines via analog gateways.

Marshall University utilizes premise based Microsoft Skype for Business Unified Communication services on all campus telephones with SIP trunks provided by Level 3 Communications. Trunks are redundant at three geographically dispersed locations on the MUNet. Polycom VVX 600 models provide traditional telephone set devices. A traditional VoIP Avaya telephone switch is planned to be replaced by Skype for Business services in 2018 services the JCESOM.

PCI compliant point-of-sale services, access control, building automation control, and video surveillance are provided by MUNet IP services.
