BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK CHILD WELFARE CERTIFICATE

Marshall University's Child Welfare Certificate enables participants to develop a foundation of learning and preparation that will enhance practice with at-risk children and families. This certificate supports practice in the areas of child protective services, adoption, kinship and foster care services, after-school and community youth programs, and adolescent/youth services.

WHO CAN APPLY?

- Students currently enrolled at Marshall University
- Marshall graduates
- Community College students interested in applying for an undergraduate social work program
- Non-degree seeking students seeking to enhance their skills and marketability in Child Welfare services.
