Federal TRIO programs such as Student Support Services were created to help disadvantaged students enter college, graduate, and establish themselves into a career. These programs are funded under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and are known as TRIO. Student Support Services provides information, counseling, academic instruction, assistance in applying for financial aid, encouragement and support to all 200 of our students at Marshall University. It is designed for first-generation college students whose parents did not attend or complete a four-year college degree and/or whose family income may hinder them from remaining in college without the financial assistance to receive the full range of services and educational opportunities. All information collected and distributed regarding the student will remain confidential under The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99).
