

REFLECTIONS

Create a journal about your college experiences here at Marshall. Consider writing about:

- Courses that have been especially meaningful or enlightening for you
- How your values have been shaped, or changed, during college
- Relationships that have developed through your college experience
- Campus life experiences (good and bad!) and what you've learned from them
- Unexpected things you've learned during college