

Nearly $18,000 raised during 2018 workplace campaign

Education

$5,220

79

youth better prepared for school

54

high schoolers more likely to graduate 10

adults taught to read

Financial Stability

$4,680

64

individuals benefited from VITA

44

adults advanced work readiness skills

15

adults gained a better understanding of finance

Health

$5,760

142

individuals assisted with and educated about substance use

7

individuals assisted with decreasing tobacco use

7

individuals educated on proper nutrition

Safety Net

$2,340

34

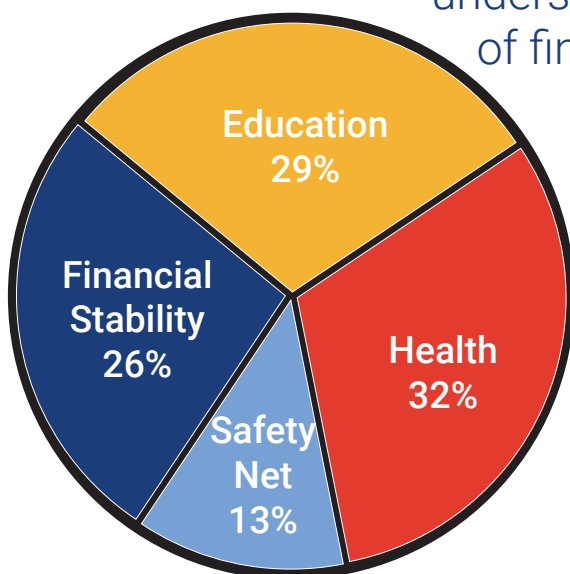

community members received assistance with clothes, healthcare and prescriptions

20

individuals received meals

10

nights were provided at local shelters

Nearly 500 individuals received assistance through the funds raised by Marshall University during the 2018 Campaign.