

WVAMLE 22nd ANNUAL STATE CONFERENCE

April 25-27, 2003
Snowshoe Mountain
Snowshoe, WV

Blockbuster Program Planned!

Three nationally recognized speakers at one conference? In West Virginia? YOU BET! Bill Denney, Walt Grebing and Debbie Silver will ALL be presenting at the 22nd Annual WVAMLE Conference. This year's Conference will be held at Snowshoe Mountain Resort on April 25-27, 2003.

Debbie will demonstrate her unique ability to move the audience to tears and laughter, often at the same time! Debbie will deliver the opening keynote address on Friday evening and two breakout sessions on Saturday.

Walt will share his wisdom of over 25 years experience in the middle school setting during the luncheon on Saturday. Walt will also provide two breakout sessions on Saturday.

Bill, a keynote speaker at the 2002 WVAMLE Conference, will conduct two breakout sessions on Saturday morning. His knowledge of middle schools and his inspiring message will be evident in both sessions.

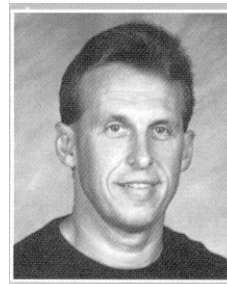

Space is limited! Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity to hear from some of the best authorities on middle school life!

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Do you and your colleagues have something to share? The WVAMLE is looking for you! If you and/or members of your school staff have information to share with other middle level educators, now is your chance. The WVAMLE Annual Conference provides an opportunity to present the unique and successful techniques used at your school and in your classroom.

Presentations should be geared for the experienced middle level educator and those new to the field. Practical, hands-on workshops are encouraged, as well as those that are research-based and/or provide educators with information to help them be more successful with the middle level student.

Sessions will be approximately 45 minutes in length. Selected presenters are required to register for the conference.

Topics can address one or more of the following:

- Team building/interdisciplinary teaming
- Subject areas (math, science, social studies, art, physical education, etc.)
- Student conferences/parent participation
- Meeting student needs
- Advisor/advisee
- Effective leadership
- School improvement
- Any other area of interest.
