COURSE APPROVAL APPLICATION

PLEASE COMPLETE SECTIONS 1-4.

1. BASIC INFORMATION:
Course Title
Instructor (please indicate your experience teaching women's studies)
Semester of Offering (please indicate when you are planning to offer the class)
Course Number
Course Description

2. COURSE REVIEW
Consider the goals and mission of the Women's Studies program (you can find a full discussion on the Women's Studies website at http://www.marshall.edu/wpnu/womenstu/: click on the “About Us” link). Also consider Women's Studies pedagogy: Women's Studies courses focus on and analyze women’s experiences, emphasize a collaborative relationship between instructors and students, and encourage students to connect issues raised in the classroom to their own lives. Then please answer the following:

   a. How does your course reflect the goals and mission of the Women’s Studies program?
   b. How does your course reflect feminist analysis, women’s agency and contributions, and/or feminist scholarship?
   c. How does your course reflect Women’s Studies’ pedagogy?

3. SUPERVISOR APPROVAL
Applications should include documentation that the departmental Chair is aware that the faculty member is proposing to teach a women’s studies course. This may be in the form of an email or a note on departmental letterhead.

4. SIGNATURE OF THE APPLICANT
Signature: Date:

DECISION AND SIGNATURE OF WOMEN’S STUDIES REPRESENTATIVE
Is this class approved as a Women’s Studies course?

Signature of approver: Date: