

PROVOST REPORT

JUNE 21, 2023

A MESSAGE FROM ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Greetings!

The new academic year is well underway. There are many new faces, new ideas, and new projects. Here is a peek at some of the highlights in this report:

- Marshall University has been awarded a $6+ million grant from the National Science Foundation's EPSCoR program. The grant will establish the West Virginia Network for Functional Neuroscience and Transcriptomics (WV-NFNT), a collaborative effort among neuroscientists and bioinformaticists. The aim is to position West Virginia as a prominent hub for impactful neuroscience research. The project involves a diverse group of faculty members from various disciplines, including Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Education, Computer Science, and the School of Medicine.
- Professor Sandra Reed from College of Arts and Media and her team received a $25,000 grant to study the impact of a community-based visual art intervention on the cognitive and overall health of older adults.
- Homer Hickam, renowned author and retired NASA engineer, delivered an inspiring and insightful lecture as the esteemed featured speaker for the first post-Covid installment of the Margaret Kathryn Sovine Billups Lecture Series hosted by the College of Education and Professional Development on May 4-5.
- The Lewis College of Business has been recognized by AACSB as one of 25 schools with inspiring innovations. Dr. Ben Eng, Director of the iCenter, showcased their efforts at the AACSB International Conference, emphasizing their commitment to inspiring innovation within the college and the wider community.
- Marshall University Aviation earned early recognition as a member of the Federal Aviation Administration Safety Team (FAAST) in May 2023. They will contribute to aviation safety by developing interventions, supporting innovation, and addressing local concerns, in collaboration with the aviation community and beyond.
- Dr. Eric Blough has been appointed as the new dean for the School of Pharmacy at Marshall University. He has a long history with the university, joining as an assistant professor in 2003 and progressing to become a full professor and associate dean of academic affairs. He has been serving as the interim dean since January 2022.
- Dr. Annette Ferguson has been selected as the new chair for the School of Nursing. With over 25 years of experience as a registered nurse and 18 years in higher education as a nurse educator, she brings a wealth of knowledge. Dr. Ferguson has been an associate professor of nursing at Marshall University since 2017 and previously served as the interim chair for the School of Nursing starting in 2022.

In addition to our academic units, our numerous student support services and programs report that:

- The 2023 John Marshall Leadership Fellows Program Cohort, comprising 18 exceptional individuals, celebrated their completion, embodying transformative leadership through knowledge, training, and mentorship.
- The Alternative Suspension Program achieved its highest success rate ever this year, with 70% of students successfully completing their contracts and returning to Marshall.
- The resumption of the Supplemental Instruction program after the COVID hiatus in Spring 2023 proved highly fruitful. Across all five supported sections, students who actively participated in SI sessions outperformed their counterparts who did not attend, earning grades of .5 or higher on a 4-point scale.
- The MU Student Veterans Association chapter and president were featured in the spring edition of the national Student Veterans Association (SVA) quarterly. They were recognized for their work in creating a statewide network of SVA offices working to push legislation and compile resources. Create a short sentence.
- Lisa Martin, Director of Student Conduct, recently completed the NASPA 2023 Certificate Program in Student Affairs Law and Policy, a comprehensive 23-hour residential program aimed at enhancing professional knowledge in the field. Additionally, she has been appointed by the Association of Student Conduct Administration (ASCA) to serve on both the Core and Student Conduct Specialty Certification Committees of the Student Affairs Educators Certification Consortium.

On behalf of the administration and staff of Academic Affairs, we invite you to share our pride and celebrate the scholarly and creative works of our faculty and staff, along with the successes of our students and our alumni.

Sincerely,

Avinandan Mukherjee

Avinandan “Avi” Mukherjee, Ph.D.
Sr. Vice President for Academic Affairs &
Provost

Karen McComas

Karen McComas, Ed.D.
Interim Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs & Associate Provost

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND MEDIA (Interim Dean: Dr. Wendell Dobbs) .....	7
Program Highlights .....	7
Faculty &amp; Staff Achievements .....	7
Student &amp; Alumni News .....	8
Community Engagement .....	8
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND COMPUTER SCIENCE (Dean: Dr. David Dampier) 9
Faculty &amp; Staff Achievements .....	9
Student &amp; Alumni News .....	10
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (Dean: Dr. Teresa Eagle) .....	11
Program Highlights .....	11
Faculty &amp; Staff Achievements .....	11
Student &amp; Alumni Achievements .....	11
Community Engagement .....	11
COLLEGE OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS (Dean: Dr. Michael Prewitt) .....	13
Program Highlights .....	13
Faculty &amp; Staff Achievements .....	13
Student &amp; Alumni Achievements .....	13
Community Engagement .....	14
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS (Dean: Dr. Robert Bookwalter) .....	15
Program Highlights .....	15
Faculty &amp; Staff Achievements .....	15
Student &amp; Alumni Achievements .....	16
Community Engagement .....	16
COLLEGE OF SCIENCE (Interim Dean: Mr. Brian Morgan) .....	17
Program Highlights .....	17
Faculty &amp; Staff Achievements .....	17
Student &amp; Alumni Achievements .....	18
Community Engagement .....	18

CONTENTS

---

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND MEDIA (Interim Dean: Dr. Wendell Dobbs) .....	7
Program Highlights.....	7
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	7
Student & Alumni News .....	8
Community Engagement.....	8
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND COMPUTER SCIENCE (Dean: Dr. David Dampier)	9
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	9
Student & Alumni News .....	10
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (Dean: Dr. Teresa Eagle) .....	11
Program Highlights.....	11
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	11
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	11
Community Engagement.....	11
COLLEGE OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS (Dean: Dr. Michael Prewitt) .....	13
Program Highlights.....	13
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	13
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	13
Community Engagement.....	14
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS (Dean: Dr. Robert Bookwalter) .....	15
Program Highlights.....	15
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	15
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	16
Community Engagement.....	16
COLLEGE OF SCIENCE (Interim Dean: Mr. Brian Morgan) .....	17
Program Highlights.....	17
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	17
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	18
Community Engagement.....	18
DIVISION OF AVIATION (Chief Aviation Officer: Mr. Bill Noe) .....	19
Program Highlights.....	19

Student & Alumni Achievements .....	19
Community Engagement.....	19
LEWIS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS (Interim Dean: Dr. Jeffrey Archambault) .....	20
Program Highlights.....	20
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	20
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	21
SCHOOL OF PHARMACY (Interim Dean: Dr. Eric Blough) .....	22
Program Highlights.....	22
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	22
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	22
CENTER FOR TEACHING &amp; LEARNING (Interim Executive Director: Dr. April Fugett)
.....	23
Program Highlights.....	23
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	23
Collaborations & Partnerships.....	23
CENTER FOR STUDENT SUCCESS (Director: Dr. Kateryna Schray) .....	24
Program Highlights.....	24
Faculty & Staff Achievements.....	24
Student Achievements .....	24
Community Engagement.....	24
INTERCULTURAL &amp; STUDENT AFFAIRS (Vice President: Dr. Marcie Simms) .....	25
Program Highlights.....	25
Staff Achievements.....	25
Student & Alumni Achievements .....	26
Collaborations & Partnerships.....	26
Community Engagement.....	26

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND MEDIA (INTERIM DEAN: DR. WENDELL DOBBS)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- CODA: Capstone Highlights is a selection of best works from BFA and BA students who participated in the 2023 Spring Capstone Exhibition.
- Ellipses: A Conversation in Modern Textiles is an exhibition juried by Miyuki Cook, Associate Professor in Fibers at Marshall University. The selected works are a collection from the School of Art & Design's current students, alumni, and faculty and portrays a large variety processes, utility, and themes found in creating textile art. Charles W. and Norma C. Carroll Gallery, May 4-June 2.
- How Close is that to Richmond? features contemporary artists creating in wide range of materials with one thing in common: proximity. Each artist in this invitational exhibition lives and works in West Virginia, challenging the expected socioeconomics and culture of the region. Charles W. and Norma C. Carroll Gallery, June 12-July 6.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- Dr. Maribea Barnes-Marsano will serve as the Dean of the Governor's School for the Arts for the seventh year, from June 25 to July 15, 2023. Professor Hanna Kozlowski will serve as Assistant Dean.
- Professor Miyuki Akai-Cook received the Best in Show Artivism Award from the Wild Heart Gallery International Juried Art Exhibition for Losing My Life for...Vaquita & Totoaba, tufted rug.
- Professors Ian Hagarty and Danny Kaufmann exhibited their collaborative art project entitled Riverine at the Jones-Carter Gallery in Lake City, SC, during the annual ArtFields festival, April 19-29, 2023.
- Professor Sandra Reed, with an interdisciplinary team from the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Medicine, received a grant of $25,000 funded by the Huntington Foundation through the Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine's 2022 Geriatric Research Pilot for her study Life Bouquets: A study of the impact from a community-based visual art intervention on the cognitive and other aspects of health and well-being for older adults.
- Dr. Charles G. Bailey, professor and faculty advisor of WMUL-FM was named The National Electronic Media Association Chapter Advisor of the Year for 2022-2023 and earned lifetime professional member status to the organization.
- Faculty from the School of Theatre and Dance collaborated to present The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. Jack Colclough served as director, Mike Murphy as technical director, Olivia Trees as costume designer, Lang Reynolds as lighting designer, and MaShawn Morton as choreographer.
- Courtney Chapman, Gallery Director and VAC Facilities Coordinator, served as a juror for the High School Artists of the Tri-State Exhibition sponsored by Greater Huntington Park & Recreation District, May 1-May 3, 2023.

- Dr. Mark Zanter's Four Flips for flute & alto saxophone was featured on New Music on the Bayou, June 1, 2023, in Monroe, LA. Dr. Zanter's Gamma Ut for tuba quartet premiered in Houston, TX, May 19, 2023.

STUDENT & ALUMNI NEWS

- Dawn Kushner, BFA Photography, was awarded the Susan Jackson Memorial Award by School of Art and Design faculty. Dawn was also awarded a John Marshall Creative Discovery grant for summer 2023. Her project "Against the Odds" explores the devastating effects of substance abuse and mental illness on family and friends through large-scale photographs.
- Rebecca Law, senior Multimedia Journalism major, won the Summer 2023 MURC Undergraduate Creative Discovery and Research Award. She will receive a $4,000 stipend to complete her research project, "Singing the News: Music as Journalism in America."
- Students working with WMUL-FM received National Broadcasting Society/Alpha Epsilon Rho awards for their work with the station. They earned a grand prize award for Audio Newscast for the Nov. 16, 2022, 5 p.m. news edition. Students include Rebecca Law, a senior Multimedia major, Makayla Wheeler, a May 2023 graduate in Multimedia Journalism, and Ben Anderson, a freshman Media Production major.
- Callie Thacker, BFA Studio Art, received a John Marshall Creative Discovery grant for summer 2023. Her work will focus on Appalachian barn quilts.
- Shannon Scott was the first graduate of the BA Art History program (Spring 2023).
- Foundations Review Exhibition Winners (April 12, 2023):
  - Joshua White, BA Visual Art & Design, 1st place, Brett, the Hypermasculine Gay Unicorn
  - Jamie Meadows, BA Visual Art & Design, 2nd place, Escape
  - Chandreonia Harris, BA Visual Art & Design, 3rd place, Flourish
  - Allison Dorsey, BA Visual Art & Design, 4th place, Tipple 36
  - Sophie Leffew, BFA Ceramics, 5th place, Untitled.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Professor Burnis Morris, professor in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications and director of The Dr. Carter G. Woodson Lyceum, will host K-12 teachers to the Summer Institute on Black History Instruction the week of June 19. The West Virginia Humanities Council grant for the Black History Institute supports K-12 teachers who will study history and how to better integrate Black history within their lessons. The award covers three hours of graduate credit and provides teachers with $500 stipends.
- Professor Frederick Bartolovic coordinated the 20th Annual Empty Bowls sale for the Facing Hunger Foodbank. The sales netted over $15,000, and the proceeds will provide over 100,000 meals.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND COMPUTER SCIENCE (DEAN: DR. DAVID DAMPIER)

---

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- CECS Academy of Distinguished Teachers
  - Ammar Alzarrad, Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering
  - Mehdi Esmailpour, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering
  - Rick McCormick, Professor Emeritus of Civil Engineering
- Weisberg Service Award
  - Haroon Malik, Associate Professor of Computer Science
- Weisberg Research Awards
  - Junior Award: Roozbeh “Ross” Salary, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering
  - Senior Award: Wael Zatar, Professor of Civil Engineering
- CECS Career Service Awards
  - Dr. Ron Bieniek, Professor of Mechanical Engineering (retiring)
  - Dr. Jian Liu, Associate Professor of Industrial Engineering (posthumous)
- Zhu, P., “Centralized-Decentralized-Hybrid Control for Multi-Scale Robotic Spatial Exploration Systems,” $21,868, NASA WV EPSCOR Seed Grant.
- Shim, S., “Mutated clonal hematopoiesis-driver genes in astronauts after space missions,” $15,000, NASA WV EPSCOR Seed Grant.
- Chowdhury, S., “An Integrated and Adaptive Drone Routing Model for Emergency Response,” $18,000, NASA WV EPSCOR Seed Grant.
- Sardahi, Y., “Investigation the Best Format for the Field Artillery Master Gunner Skills Enhancement Suite Prototype,” $188,182.77, CMI<sup>2</sup>.
- McKnight, I., R. Raines, H. White, N. Nosoudi, C. Lee, P. Lee, J. Shim, “Mutability of druggable kinases and pro-inflammatory cytokines by their proximity to telomeres and A+T content,” PLOS ONE, April 27, 2023.
- Khalid, S., A. Alzarrad, I. Wait, H. Malik, & J. Bryce, “Fuzzy Analytic Hierarchy Process (FAHP) Based Decision Support System to Select Suitable Wearable Sensing Devices (WSD) for Construction Workers,” Accepted to appear in Proceedings of the ASCE 2023 International Conference on Computing in Civil Engineering, Corvallis, Oregon, June 25-28.
- Alzarrad, A., S. Song, H. Hatamleh, I. Awolusi, & S. Chowdhury, “Construction Automation Drivers and Challenges: The Case of Automatic Reinforced Concrete Beam Construction,” Accepted to appear in Proceedings of the ASCE 2023 International Conference on Computing in Civil Engineering, Corvallis, Oregon, June 25-28.
- Malik, H. and D. Dampier, “A Framework to Facilitate Higher Educational Institutions Delivery of Data Science Microcredentials-A First-Hand Experience,” Accepted for Publication in the Proceedings of the ASEE National Conference, Baltimore, MD, June 25 – 28, 2023.
- Hart, M., J. Conrad, E. Barrett, K. Legg, G. Ivey, P. Lee, Y. Yung, and J. Shim, “X-linked hydrocephalus genes: their proximity to telomeres and high A+T content compared to Parkinson’s disease,” Accepted for Publication in Experimental Neurology, 2023.

STUDENT & ALUMNI NEWS

- Luke Durham was elected to participate in a Research Experience for Undergraduates at Boise State University in Idaho.
- Muna Lentison was elected to participate in a Research Experience for Undergraduates at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
- KrisAnna Parsons was selected to participate in a Research Experience for Undergraduates jointly administered by Case Western Reserve University and Cleveland State University.
- Emma Barrett, "Mutable effects of radiation on mouse and chimpanzee genome," NASA WV Space Grant Consortium Fellowship, May 16, 2023 – May 15, 2024, $5,000. Emma is working with Dr. Simon Shim, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering.
- Luke Durham, "Collaboration Mechanism Development in Drone Swarms," NASA WV Space Grant Consortium Fellowship, May 16, 2023 – May 15, 2024, $5,000. Luke is working with Dr. Sudipta Chowdhury, Assistant Professor of Industrial Engineering.
- John Russell, "Performing a Fire Hazard Assessment on Lithium-Ion Batteries to Improve Safety in Spaceflight," NASA WV Space Grant Consortium Fellowship, May 16, 2023 – May 15, 2024, $5,000. John is working with Dr. Ryan Shen, Assistant Professor of Industrial Engineering.
- Hamzeh AlQawasmi, "Design and Fabrication of Bone Scaffolds," $4000, Summer Undergraduate Research Experience, MURC. Hamzeh is working with Dr. Ross Salary, Assistant Professor of Biomedical and Mechanical Engineering.
- Robbie Clarke, "Influence of Environmental Insults on Human and Mouse Genome Post-Space Mission," $4000, Summer Undergraduate Research Experience, MURC. Robbie is working with Dr. Simon Shim, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering.
- Reagan Halley, "A Data Mining Approach to Predict Post Transplant Malignancies," $4000, Summer Undergraduate Research Experience, MURC. Reagan is working with Dr. Nasim Nosoudi, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering.
- Madeline Hart, "Mutability of Novel GPCR Genes and Opioid Receptors in Human and Animal Genomes," $4000, Summer Undergraduate Research Experience, MURC. Madeline is working with Dr. Simon Shim, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering.
- Gabrielle Ivey, "Transcriptional Roles for Tissue Plasminogen Activator Gene in Alzheimer's Disease," $4000, Summer Undergraduate Research Experience, MURC. Gabrielle is working with Dr. Simon Shim, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering.
- Baylee Weaver, "Exploring the Differentiation of Mesenchymal Stem Cell to Chondrocytes using electric field," $4000, Summer Undergraduate Research Experience, MURC. Baylee is working with Dr. Nasim Nosoudi, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (DEAN: DR. TERESA EAGLE)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- The 2023 WVTESOL conference was held at MU April 14-15. Teaching English as a Second Language is an important effort and has been shared over the years by the COEPD and COLA. Executive Board members include Dr. Isaac Larison and Dr. Ruthann Arneson (COEPD) and Kae Bradley, Sarah Nowak, Dr. Puspa Damai, Siham El Ougli, and Amine Oudghiri-Otmani.
- The first meeting of the Doctoral Faculty Collaborative program was held on May 18. This series of meetings is being established to support the faculty who work with students in the EdD programs. Dr. Bobbi Nicholson and Dr. Ron Childress were panelists, providing an overview of the dissertation research process and answering questions from potential new doctoral faculty. The Collaborative is being organized and implemented by Dr. Tammy Johnson.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- Dr. Kimberly McFall, School Library Program Coordinator, and Jessica Lowman, Archivist and Faculty Librarian, gave an invited talk on the State of Libraries in America: A cultural conversation to the Faculty and Students of the Department of Libraries and Digital Media on Thursday, May 11 at the University of Wroclaw. The conversation centered around banned books and censorship, the history of librarianship in Appalachia and the importance that Archivists play in preserving history. Dr. McFall was also chosen as a John Marshall Scholar for Summer 2023.
- Dr. Lori Howard was awarded the Hedrick Program Grant for Teaching Innovation, 2022-2023.
- Drs. Feon Smith-Branch, Lisa Burton and Isaac Larison were promoted to the rank of full Professor.
- Dr. Sachiko McBride was recognized as a Student Success Champion for Spring 2023.
- College level awards were presented to the following:
  - Hicks Teaching – Dr. Jeff Garrett, Counseling
  - Guyer Service – Dr. Sandra Stroebel, School Psychology
  - Barnett Research – Dr. McKenzie Brittain, Curriculum & Instruction

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- Julia Costello Williamson, a senior Elementary Education major, was selected as a recipient of a Creative Discovery and Research Award for Summer 2023.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Dr. Feon Smith-Branch traveled to Little Rock, AR, May 3-5, 2023, alongside her colleagues from West Virginia University, Dr. Ann Chester and Dr. Bethany Hornbeck, to co-facilitate a RAMP-UP-WV Health Sciences and Technology Academy (HSTA) Gap Analysis Workshop by HSTA Hatch to the Pathways Academy at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.

- Dr. Neil Arneson has taken on the One Room Schoolhouse as a retirement project. He has maintained open hours for the Spring semester, doing living history presentations on Thursday. As a full costumed headmaster, he has hosted numerous groups of students from area schools, drop-ins from MU students and staff, and has plans for activities through the summer and fall. The Country School Association will be visiting the ORS in July to start planning their 2025 national conference here.
- Homer Hickam was a special guest for several activities for MU May 4-5. He was the featured speaker for the first post-Covid installment of the Margaret Kathryn Sovine Billups Lecture Series. Attendees included local community members, students, MU faculty, and many others excited to hear about the people who inspired him. Prior to the Lecture, he answered many questions from a smaller group of invited guests. This included representatives of those who assisted in sponsoring his appearance: College of Engineering and Computer Science, the College of Liberal Arts, MU libraries, and the WV Department of Education. The following day, he gave the keynote address at the WV Young Writers Day in Charleston. YWD is directed by Dr. Barbara O'Byrne who made it possible for us to welcome Homer Hickam home to WV. Mr. Hickam charmed attendees with his deprecating humor, and his generous commitment of time; he remained well past the end of each of the activities greeting fans, signing autographs, and giving attention to all.

COLLEGE OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS (DEAN: DR. MICHAEL PREWITT)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Dr. Eric Blough was named as the new dean for the School of Pharmacy. Dr. Blough joined the faculty at Marshall University as assistant professor in the department of biological sciences in 2003. In 2012, he joined the MU School of Pharmacy as an associate professor in the department of pharmaceutical sciences and research. In 2014, he became a full professor. From 2015-2018, he was the assistant dean of curriculum before being appointed as the associate dean of academic affairs in 2018. He has been serving as the interim dean of the school since January of 2022.
- Dr. Annette Ferguson was selected as the new chair for the School of Nursing. Dr. Ferguson earned her Master of Science degree in Nursing with a focus in nursing education from Regis University in Denver, Colorado, and a Doctor of Nursing Practice in leadership from Eastern Kentucky University. She has been a registered nurse for over 25 years with a focus on critical care and has worked in higher education as a nurse educator for over 18 years. She has been an associate professor of nursing at Marshall University since 2017. In the fall of 2019, Dr. Ferguson served as the director of the pre-licensure B.S.N. program until she was appointed the interim chair for the School of Nursing in 2022.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- Marshall University Athletic Training faculty member Jenni Wheeler-Johnson was inducted into the West Virginia Athletic Trainers' Association as a Hall of Fame. Wheeler-Johnson is the first female inducted into the prestigious group whose members have excelled at caring for athletes throughout the region. The clinical coordinator joined the Marshall Athletic Training staff as an assistant professor/clinical coordinator in August 2019.
- Dr. Gretchen Prather was promoted to full professor in the School of Physical Therapy. Dr. Prather was also recognized for her completion of the 2023 cohort of the John Marshall Leadership Fellows Program at their end-of-year reception.
- Dr. James Dauber was promoted to full professor in the School of Physical Therapy.
- Dr. Gregory Breeden, Assistant Professor in Health Sciences, was given the 2023 Mental Health Advocate Award by the Marshall University Counseling Center. According to the Counseling Center staff, Dr. Breeden's name came up several times as a faculty member who made a difference in the care and well-being of students this year.
- Steven Leigh, PhD, was recognized for his work at the Marshall Center for Student Success for making student success a reality.
- Dr. Suzanne M. Konz (Biomechanics) and Dr. Zach Garrett (Athletic Training) presented a podium lecture: "Upholding the NATA Membership Standards and the Code of Ethics," at the 2023 Mid-Atlantic Athletic Trainers' Association Annual Symposium held in Virginia Beach, VA on May 22, 2023.

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- Marshall University Doctor of Nursing Practice student Emily Hankins has been selected to represent Marshall on the West Virginia Organization for Nursing Leadership (WVONL) board. WVONL is a state affiliate of the American Organization for Nursing Leadership (AONL). Hankins will participate in board meetings, sub-committees and events as well as be a non-voting member.
- Thirteen students along with seven faculty in the School of Physical Therapy presented research at the 2023 American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) meeting in San Diego.
- Athletic Training students Blake Lacy and Heather Williamson presented at the 2023 National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA) Clinical Symposia & AT Expo in June.
- Students in the Athletic Training department presented posters at the 2023 WV Athletic Trainer's Association Symposium.
  - Anthony Whitlock – “Anterior Cruciate Ligament Reinjury”
  - Madeline Beck – “Bilateral Shin Pain Presenting as Bilateral Exertional Compartment Syndrome”
  - Lyndsie Wilson – “Lower Back Radiofrequency Rhizotomy: Clinical 4 Case Study”
  - Bailey Pullen – “Tibial Plateau Fracture Within Football”
  - Heather Williamson – “Tear of the Anterior Inferior Tibiofibular Ligament Resulting in a Tight Rope Surgery and Achilles Tendon Tendinopathy”
  - WVATA Student of the Year – Blayne Lykins

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Marshall University's Speech and Hearing Center and the Huntington Scottish Rite Foundation held their 21st Rite Care fundraising dinner on April 22. The Scottish Rite program provides comprehensive services to children with communication disorders without regard to a families' ability to pay.
- The Herd Nursing Day Camps were held June 14-15 for local students grades 6-11 who are interested in a career in nursing.
- High school students from Boone County visited the nursing labs in May to learn more about the BSN program.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS (DEAN: DR. ROBERT BOOKWALTER)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- The College of Liberal Arts is proud to celebrate the graduation of 92 undergraduate students in Spring 2023. Sixty-one COLA graduates finished their degrees with honors – 25 Cum Laude, 23 Magna Cum Laude, and 13 Summa Cum Laude. In addition, 41 students were awarded Master's degrees at the May ceremony.
- Thirty-four students from the College of Liberal Arts were recognized at the annual Elizabeth Gibson Drinko Honor's Convocation on April 22, 2023. Dr. Zelideth Rivas, professor of Japanese and Assistant Provost for Global Education, was the keynote speaker. Olivia Moncada earned honor awards in Political Science and Communication Studies. Teddy Fuller earned honor awards in Sociology and Religious Studies.
- The Doctor of Clinical Psychology (PsyD) program at Marshall celebrated its 20th anniversary in April.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

Four distinguished faculty members, representing 123 years of teaching and scholarship, are retiring this year:

- Dr. Bill Palmer, professor of History, is retiring after 39 years at MU. Bill joined the faculty in 1984. Bill has been an outstanding educator and a prolific scholar. He is a five-time finalist for the Hedrick Outstanding Faculty Award, winning the award in 2014. He earned the Reynolds Outstanding Teacher Award in 1997 and was a finalist for WV Professor of the Year in 2015. Dr. Palmer is an elected fellow of the Royal Historical Society of Britain. He is the author of five books and 37 scholarly articles during his distinguished career at Marshall.
- Dr. Donna Sullivan, professor of Sociology, is retiring after 18 years at Marshall. She joined the Sociology faculty in 2005 after earning her MS and PhD at University of Massachusetts, Boston's Gerontology Institute. She taught courses focused on the sociology of aging and death and dying and served on over 20 master's and honors thesis committees.
- Dr. Pamela Mulder, professor of Psychology, retired after 30 years at Marshall University. She taught for 7 years at Fresno State while earning her PhD at the California School of Professional Psychology. In 1993 she joined the faculty at Marshall. Pamela taught a wide range of courses in social psychology and clinical psychology. Her research focused on rural mental health services, particularly for women in Appalachia. She has been a champion for students from marginalized communities and a research mentor to dozens of doctoral students.
- Dr. Gwyneth Hood, professor of English, retired after 35 years of teaching. Gwyneth was a graduate of Wellesley and the University of Michigan. She was a gifted teacher, specializing in medieval literature, fantasy, and science fiction. She published one novel and an English translation of Book in Honor of Augustus. She also authored 10 scholarly articles focused on the work of Tolkien, C.S. Lewis, and Dante. Dr. Hood sadly passed away from cancer on May 15, 2023.

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- Dr. Abbey Zink, who earned her BA in Journalism in 1989 and an MA in English in 1995, was named Provost and VP of Academic Affairs at St. Cloud State. After earning a bachelor's and master's degree at Marshall, she earned a PhD in English at Northern Illinois University. She taught English for many years before serving as Dean at Western Connecticut State University, Texas A&M-Kingsville, and Sam Houston State. Prior to her new post, she served as Provost at Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania.
- Kayla Carter, 2021 Psychology graduate, earned an MS in Human Resources Management in 2022. In September 2022, she became Program Administrator and Recruitment Assistant at the WV Department of Health and Human Resources in Charleston, WV. Prior to her work at WV DHH, Kayla was a community engagement specialist at Pretera.
- Blake Beals, 2008 BA in International Affairs & Spanish and 2010 MA in Political Science, was named Quality Review Analyst at the George C. Marshall Center for Security Studies in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany. Blake has previously worked as a mortgage officer, a financial advisor, and an accountant for the Defense Finance Accounting Service.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Allison Himes, a 2023 graduate in Psychology and Music, developed a children's choir at the A.D. Lewis Community Center. Allison's capstone research examined how music can affect trauma responses in children.
- The College of Liberal Arts and the WV Department of Education have an ongoing partnership to provide instruction at the West Virginia International School located in Teay's Valley. Since 1997, the school serves the children of Japanese natives who work at the Buffalo Toyota plant and other Japan-based companies in West Virginia. Marshall recruits students who work at the WVIS while pursuing graduate degrees at Marshall. Dr. Nacky Anderson, professor of Japanese, Akiko Praylow, Japanese Outreach Coordinator, and Kanako Tabuchi, graduate student in the department of English, are instructors and administrators at the school for the coming year.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE (INTERIM DEAN: MR. BRIAN MORGAN)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Dr. Wesley Stites was named as the new dean for the College of Science. Dr. Stites comes to Marshall from the University of Arkansas where he served as department chair of Chemistry and Biochemistry for five years and then served as associate vice chancellor of research and innovation. Dr. Stites did his undergraduate work in chemistry at Johns Hopkins University. He was awarded a Ph.D. in biochemistry from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Dr. Stites returned to Johns Hopkins School of Medicine for an NIH Postdoctoral Fellowship conducting research in molecular biology and biophysics.
- The College of Science graduated 197 students during the 2022-2023 academic year.
- The Department of Chemistry added two new areas of emphasis in forensic chemistry which will educate students with knowledge for analyzing evidence from crime scenes for police investigations and court cases.
- Marshall University will receive $6+ million from the National Science Foundation's Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR) grant. These funds will create the West Virginia Network for Functional Neuroscience and Transcriptomics (WV-NFNT), a statewide collaboration of neuroscientists and bioinformaticists working to position West Virginia as a center for impactful neuroscience research. Faculty involved from Marshall University include Drs. Nadja Spitzer, Brian Antonsen and Suzanne Strait (Biological Sciences); Drs. Rosalynn Quiñones-Fernández and Mike Norton (Chemistry); Dr. Tina Cartwright (Education); David Cartwright and Dr. Haroon Malick (Computer Science); and Drs. Chris Risher, Louise Risher, and Brandon Henderson (School of Medicine).

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- Dr. Richard Gage, Natural Resources & Earth Sciences, will be piloting the Marshall Adventure Program (MAP) this summer, whose aim is to improve retention rates by developing an adventure-based, high-impact first-year experience for incoming Marshall students. The program will consist of a challenging adventure program prior to the start of the students' first semester and ongoing mentorship, programming, and monitoring during their first year. Rick and his team will include 40 students this summer in the new program.
- The STaR Division (Science, Technology and Research) of the West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission awarded Research Challenge Grants (RCGs) to directly support research conducted by students and faculty at West Virginia higher education institutions. Drs. Xiaojuan (Judy) Fan and Huong Nguyen, Physics, are part of a team that was awarded $1,315,000 over five years. Dr. Rosalynn Quiñones-Fernández, Chemistry, is part of a team that was awarded $1,300,000 over five years.
- Dr. Kimberly Kunkler, Forensic Science, attended the 2023 Annual Meeting of the Organization of Scientific Area Committees (OSAC) for Forensic Science in April and the Spring 2023 Meetings of the Forensic Science Committees at ASTM International in May.

- Dr. Davide Mauro, Computer and Information Technology, served as an official reviewer for the IEEE WASPAA 2023 Conference held in New Paltz, New York, as well as the AudioMostly 2023 Conference held in Edinburgh, United Kingdom.
- Mr. Brian M. Morgan, Interim Dean/Computer and Information Technology, was honored as the recipient of the 2023 Stephen W. Hensley Dedication to Student Life Award, selected by the Marshall University Student Government Association.
- Dr. Wendy Perkins, Criminal Justice and Criminology, gave an invited talk at Marshall University, entitled “40 Years of Sexual Violence Research and Advocacy.” She also presented “Lessons Learned While Researching Violence Against Women” at the Spring 2023 Herd in Town, Celebrating Female Perspectives, Huntington, WV.
- Drs. Stephen Young and Ryan Phillips, Criminal Justice and Criminology, along with B. Pitman presented “A Change Must Come: Intersections of Big Pharma, War on Drugs Policies, and the Opioid Epidemic” at the Abolitions Conferences at the University of California Washington Center in Washington, DC.
- Twenty-seven College of Science faculty, staff, and students were recognized by the Center for Student Success for making student success a reality throughout the year.

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- Eight Marshall University students participated in the world’s largest international cyber defense exercise, run virtually by the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in Tallinn, Estonia. The students traveled to Morgantown to partner with the U.S. Blue Team for the exercise, hosted by the West Virginia National Guard, under the leadership of the Defense Information Systems Agency.
- Chemistry student researchers Perin Schray, Alex Laverty, Julia Barnes, Cameron Whetzel, and Sierra Lutz received WV NASA awards.
- Hunter Mitchell, Trace Clark, and Jacob Blizzard were awarded MURC Undergraduate Creative Discovery and Research Awards for summer 2023.
- Student researchers Abby Roberts and Yilin Cai are Summer Undergraduate Research Experience (SURE) recipients for summer 2023.
- Chemistry student researcher Khaled El-Shazly won second prize for his poster in the Regional Undergraduate Chemistry Poster Competition at the University of Kentucky.
- Chemistry student researchers Brendin Flinn, Kara Joseph, Trace Clark, Sierra Lutz, Kayla Tyler, and Garrett Shields presented posters at the American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology Meeting (ASBMB 2023) in Seattle, WA.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- The Department of Chemistry held four outreach events for elementary and middle school students in Cabell County and Lawrence County, Ohio which included 450+ students. The events were entitled “Mad Scientist Day”, “Chemistry of Tardigrades”, and “Acid-Base Chemistry”.

DIVISION OF AVIATION (CHIEF AVIATION OFFICER: MR. BILL NOE)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Marshall University Aviation was officially recognized as a Federal Aviation Administration Safety Team [FAAST] in May 2023, four months ahead of schedule. The National FAAST Team develops standardized safety interventions for General Aviation, and supports other safety initiatives, including innovation and response to localized safety issues. Marshall Aviation will work with the aviation community, as well as the community at large to promote aviation safety.
- The Chief Aviation Officer is pleased to announce that Aviation's Bill Noe Flight School is approved to enroll international students in the Professional Pilot, Bachelor of Science program effective May 18, 2023.

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- The Aviation Maintenance Technology School's inaugural cohort which began in Fall 2022 received contingent offers of employment from Embraer. This cohort is scheduled to graduate in Spring 2024.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Marshall Aviation hosted West Virginia legislators during the May interim session held on Marshall University's campus. Mr. Bill Noe, MU Chief Aviation Officer, along with representatives from Mountwest Community and Technical College, and Huntington Tri-State Airport showcased Marshall Aviation and the economic development opportunities at the airport location.
- The Aviation Maintenance Technology school held an enrollment open house on April 22 for high school students and their families, current Marshall students, area school principals, teachers and counselors and community members to learn more about AMT education and careers. Over 100 guests from the Tri-State area attended and nine individuals submitted applications during the event.
- Aviation attended an aviation career fair at the Logan County Airport. Area high school students and community members attended the event. Over 400 guests attended the event and approximately 150 visited Aviation's booth.

LEWIS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS (INTERIM DEAN: DR. JEFFREY ARCHAMBAULT)

---

Program Highlights

- Dr. Don Capener was selected as the new dean for the Lewis College of Business. Dr. Capener has served as vice president at Monmouth College in Illinois, dean at both Jacksonville and Utah Valley universities, and as associate provost and graduate director at Utah Valley University (UVU). He successfully led UVU's Woodbury School of Business through AACSB re-accreditation in June 2022. Dr. Capener earned his Ph.D. in International Business, an M.B.A. in marketing, and a bachelor's degree in political science and economics.
- The Lewis College of Business hosted the Third Annual Teaching and Learning Conference on March 24. The keynote speaker was Dr. John Fraedrich, a renowned educator in business ethics from Southern Illinois University. The dual themes of the conference were teaching ethics and moving forward with extension of AACSB accreditation. Approximately 30 individuals attended the conference.
- AACSB recognized the Lewis College of Business as one of 25 schools with Innovations that Inspire. Dr. Ben Eng, Director of the LCOB iCenter, submitted the entry featuring the iCenter's efforts to inspire innovation throughout the LCOB, Marshall University, and the community. Dr. Eng represented the LCOB at the AACSB International Conference and Annual Meeting (ICAM) in April.
- The Truist Center for Leadership hosted the Business Leadership Symposium on April 10. The symposium featured 11 individuals or teams presenting student projects tackling real-world business challenges. Transient undergraduate students Romane Soleillant, Anais Vincent, and Marine Kersuzan were awarded first place with Student Exchange & Study Abroad. Maddy Branham was awarded second place with Sustainable Waste Management, proposing an app that creates a technologically advanced waste management system.

Faculty & Staff Achievements

- Amanda Meadows, instructor in the Department of Accountancy and Legal Environment, was named the West Virginia Society of CPAs Educator of the Year for 2023.
- Dr. Amanda Thompson-Abbott, Department of Accountancy and Legal Environment, was presented a Certificate of Recognition for 15 years of dedicated volunteer work with the United Way of the River Cities Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program.
- Dr. Uday Tate, Dr. Ben Eng, Lacie Bittinger, and Paige Leonard were recognized as Student Success Champions. Students identify faculty and staff whose kindness, caring, guidance, leadership, and wisdom have made their success possible.

Student & Alumni Achievements

- The student chapter of the Center for Public Trust held its Second Annual Business Ethics Case Competition March 9. The Competition is sponsored by the Maier Foundation. Allan McVey, West Virginia Commissioner of Insurance, was the keynote speaker. Cyrah Moore won first place. The team of Maddy Branham and Bella Schrader won second place.
- The LCOB hosted the fifth annual West Virginia Innovation and Business Model Competition (WVIBMC) on March 22. The focus of the competition is designing desirable and workable business models that are attractive to investors. The competition is open to all students of two or four-year institutions of higher education in West Virginia. Dr. Olen York worked with entrepreneurship faculty from business schools, who in turn trained student entrepreneurs. Bella Schrader won the Qualifying Event and received $500 and advances to the Finals Event with a chance to win $3,000.
- Marshall University Innovation Fellows and LCOB students attended Stanford University's University Innovation Fellows Meetup.
- Four student members of the MU chapter of the Financial Management Association, along with Dr. Mohammad Uddin, attended the Quinnipiac Global Asset Management Education (GAME) Forum March 30-31. The chapter also partnered with the LCOB and The Rahal Center for Strategic Engagement to host Marshall Financial Literacy Week April 10-13. Financial professionals from Chase, Truist, and State Farm presented workshops.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY (INTERIM DEAN: DR. ERIC BLOUGH)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- The School of Pharmacy celebrated its eighth graduating class on April 27, conferring 54 Doctor of Pharmacy degrees, one with a research track certificate. The master's degree in Pharmaceutical Science program also had two graduates this year.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- Newton E, Starcovic SA, Menze M, Konkle ME, Long TE, Hazlehurst LA, Huber JD, Robart AR, Geldenhuys WJ. Development of a fluorescence screening assay for binding partners of the iron-sulfur mitochondrial protein mitoNEET. Bioorg Med Chem Lett. May 2023.
- Brown KC, Modi KJ, Light RS, Cox AJ, Long TE, Gadepalli RS, Rimoldi JM, Miles SL, Rankin G, Valentovic M, Denning KL, Tirona MT, Finch PT, Hess JA, Dasgupta P. Anticancer Activity of Region B Capsaicin Analogs. J Med Chem. Apr 2023.
- Blume, L.; Long, T.E.; Turos, E. Applications and Opportunities in Using Disulfides, Thiosulfinates, and Thiosulfonates as Antibacterials. Int. J. Mol. Sci. 2023.
- Gayle A. Brazeau, Lee Vermeulen, The AJPE Journey Continues in Advancing Scholarly Excellence in Pharmacy Education Publications, American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education, Volume 87, Issue 5, 2023.
- Gregory Reardon, Evan T. Robinson, Sheldon Schuster, Gayle A. Brazeau, Advancing Systems Citizenship in Colleges and Schools of Pharmacy, American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education, Volume 87, Issue 5, 2023.
- Dr. Gayle A. Brazeau presented "Advancing and Publishing Your Scholarship of Teaching and Learning" at the Texas Southern University Joan M. Lafleur College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences June 19. Dr. Brazeau also presented "Enhancing Your Scholarship of Teaching and Learning" at the University of Houston College of Pharmacy, June 20.

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- The Marshall chapter of The American Pharmacists Association-Academy of Student Pharmacists (APhA-ASP) participated in the National Prescription Drug Take Back Day on April 22. There were three drop-off sites in Huntington and one in Crab Orchard, WV.
- Rachele Subik was selected by the School of Pharmacy E-board to receive the APhA-ASP Chapter Senior Recognition Certificate as the graduating member who made the greatest contribution to the chapter.
- Class of 2019 Alum, Brittany Messer, Pharm.D., received an NIH Early Career Investigator Award.

CENTER FOR TEACHING & LEARNING (INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: DR. APRIL FUGETT)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Hosted by the Center for Teaching and Learning, the Inquiring Pedagogies (iPED) Regional Teaching Conference is a professional development opportunity for faculty, staff, and administrators from Marshall University and all regionally accredited Colleges and Universities. This year's theme was Transforming Teaching and Learning through Best Practices. There were 20 sessions selected by the conference committee with 38 presenters, including six external presenters.
- The 2023 John Marshall Leadership Fellows Program Cohort celebrated the completion of their program at a reception in April. The broad aims of the John Marshall Leadership Fellows Program at Marshall University are to: Identify faculty, staff and administrators who have leadership potential; Provide information, training and development activities related to institutional processes, policies and decision-making pathways; Build participants' competence through leadership theory and research; and Apply leadership principles to a timely problem-solving project, addressing an issue of significance to the university. The reception honored the 18 completing cohort members and their 17 mentors.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- April Fugett (along with Psy.D. students and colleagues) presented research at Spring conferences.
  - Kinsey, M., Fugett, A., Beard, K.W., Black, B., & Kinder, L. (2023, April). Personality, Trauma & Pop Culture. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association. Chicago, IL.
  - Kinder, L., Fugett, A. Beard, K.W., & Kinsey, M. (2023, April). The Translation of Anime, Personality Traits, and Cognitive Load. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association. Chicago, IL.
  - Fugett, A., Black, B., Beard, K.W., & Kinsey, M. (2023, March). Psychology and Emotions of Villains. Paper presented at WonderCon. Anaheim, CA.

COLLABORATIONS & PARTNERSHIPS

- Several representatives from Marshall were invited to present their work on student success during the 2022-2023 Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE) Webinar Series. This project included representation from CTL, University College, the Center for Student Success, and Academic Affairs.
- Fugett, A., Atkins, C., Schray, K., & McComas, K. (2023, April). Using Risk Analytics to Develop and Support Student Success Initiatives and Interventions. 2022-2023 Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE) Webinar Series.

CENTER FOR STUDENT SUCCESS (DIRECTOR: DR. KATERYNA SCHRAY)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- The Alternative Suspension Program finished the academic year with the highest success rate in its four-year history, with 70% of the participating students completing their alternative suspension contract and able to return to Marshall.
- CSS certified 7 new Total Withdrawal Counselors at its training on May 23, 2023, bringing the total number of TWCs at Marshall to 37. TWCs meet with students who are withdrawing from all their classes after the schedule adjustment period to guide them through the process, ensure that they understand any impact on their Financial Aid, Housing, etc., and set them up for success for future semesters. This program is unique to Marshall University.
- The Supplemental Instruction program concluded its first year back after a hiatus due to COVID. For Spring 2023, students who attended SI sessions earned grades .5 or higher on a 4-point scale compared to their classmates who did not attend SI sessions across all five supported sections.

FACULTY & STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- CSS Director Kateryna Schray co-presented a session entitled “Using Risk Analytics to Develop and Support Student Success Initiatives and Interventions” at the April 12 webinar sponsored by the Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE) at the University of Oklahoma with April Fugett, Chris Atkins, and Karen McComas.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

- CSS held its first annual CSS Recognition Ceremony on Friday, April 21, 2023, to honor FAM Peer Mentors (Olivia Bird, Gracie Brumfield, Andrea Dalton, Aakriti Damai, Hannah Dorsey, Cora Kelley, Michaela Marshall, Hayley Russell, Whitney Sisler, Emilee Wallace, Sarah Wilson), Supplemental Instruction Leaders (Caroline Cartwright, Irina Kukharskaya, Zoey Smith) and CSS Graduate Assistants (Meadow Hoover, Katelyn York Patrick) who graduated in Spring of 2023. Each student received a CSS graduation cord to signify not only their own successful achievement of a college degree but also their contribution to the success of the students entrusted to their care through various CSS programs.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- CSS Director Kateryna Schray continues to co-host Marshall’s weekly program MUkraine, live every Friday afternoon on the war in Ukraine with experts and guests from around the world. To date, the program has aired for 63 weeks without interruption.

INTERCULTURAL & STUDENT AFFAIRS (VICE PRESIDENT: DR. MARCIE SIMMS)

---

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- In March, the Wellness Program Office presented “Party in the New Era”, a harm reduction presentation for Fraternity and Sorority Life. The office also provided “Safer Spring Break” activities for 200 participants with 150 Safer Spring Break kits distributed.
- Wellness Programs held in April a Sleep for Success Week and distributed 400 kits that had important information and tools for better sleeping habits.
- In May, Wellness Programs provided Alcohol and Certified Tobacco Cessation Training.
- The Office of Disability Services proctored 273 exams and 65 finals for the Spring semester. Disability Services had 551 students registered at the end of the Spring semester.
- The Annual Women of Marshall Awards had a record-high attendance (82 participants) on April 28, with First Lady of Marshall Alys Smith serving as keynote speaker. Awards were presented to students, faculty, and staff whom their peers nominated for recognition of their contributions toward gender equity on campus.
- The Office of Student Conduct had six tabling events this semester on Student Conduct.
- The LGBTQ+ Office Spring Lavender Graduation had the largest number of graduates, with 35 graduates.
- The Counseling Center now has 5 fully licensed counselors and two provisionally licensed counselors.

STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

- Lisa Martin, Director of Student Conduct, participated in the National Association of Student Personal Administrators (NASPA) 2023 Certificate Program in Student Affairs Law and Policy. This 23-hour intensive residential program provides an opportunity for in-depth study to enhance student affairs, professional knowledge, and understanding of law and policy. Ms. Martin was also selected by the Association of Student Conduct Administration (ASCA) to represent the association on the Student Affairs Educators Certification Consortium for the Core and Student Conduct Specialty Certification Committees. This is a dual 2-year appointment that serves both committees. Ms. Martin will represent the field of student conduct in Core Certification decisions while shaping the Student Conduct Specialty Certification to demonstrate competence in the field.
- Wellness Programs presented in April at the West Virginia Collegiate Initiative (WVCIA) to Advance Healthy Campus communities. The Wellness Coordinator is the Co-Chair of the WVCIA.
- Counseling Center staff Nikki Barr and Morgan Conley received Student Success Awards.

STUDENT & ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENTS

- The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life increased memberships in its historically black Greek organizations (NPHC) with new member presentations from Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.
- The MU Student Veterans Association chapter and president were featured in the spring edition of the national Student Veterans Association (SVA) quarterly. They were recognized for their work in creating a statewide network of SVA offices working to push legislation and compile resources.

COLLABORATIONS & PARTNERSHIPS

- Wellness Programs collaborated with the Counseling Center in March for a Women's Wellness Event. Two events with Housing and Residence Life were held on drinking and driving and responsible partying.
- In April, Wellness Programs presented to Professor Wook-Sung Yoo's Engineering class on Wellness for Success. The center collaborated with the Pan African Student Alliance for their dinner/fashion show event, the Counseling Center for Men's Mental Health Awareness, and with Sodexo Dining halls to highlight foods that support memory and healthy brains.
- The Women's and Gender Center is partnering with the College of Business to offer salary negotiation workshop training to upper-level undergraduate students seeking a professional certificate. This training is facilitated by colleagues in the Office of Career and Education with the goal of teaching college women how to successfully advocate for themselves to achieve equitable pay and close the gender wage gap post-graduation.
- The Women's and Gender Center is partnering with the Minority Health Institute to offer more campus programs that focus on education and awareness surrounding issues on reproductive health, maternal health, cervical cancer, breast cancer, hypertension, and its specific impact on women and minorities, and human trafficking.
- The Center for African American Students is a member of the Marshall University Juneteenth Planning Committee. The Center is also a sponsor of the Fairfield CDC Farce for Equality for Huntington's Juneteenth celebration.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life increased memberships in its Historically Black Greek organizations (NPHC) with new member presentations from Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.
- The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life Completed its last Community Service Event of the semester by attending Spring Hill Elementary School and engaging with students regarding Greek Life and playing fun games.
- The Women's and Gender Center is partnering with CONTACT Rape Crisis Center and locally owned female business VC Boutique to host a fundraiser in the Fall to raise funds, awareness, education, and prevention to support survivors in our community.