- Please check with advisor about course offerings. Not all classes will be offered every semester.

MARKETING SALES

The Division of Marketing, MIS, and Entrepreneurship offers a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree in Marketing. Professionals that work in marketing aim to get and keep customers by determining and satisfying customer needs and wants in a diverse market. This is done by making sure the company has the right products and/or services and that these are correctly promoted, distributed, and priced. In the marketing program, you will learn how to be effective at personal selling, promotion development and execution, event coordination, customer experience design, supply chain management, analytics, market research, social media, digital marketing, and strategic planning. Marketing majors can choose to have an area of emphasis in Digital Marketing and Analytics or Sales.

MARKETING SALES — 2019-2020

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Take a career self-assessment to help determine what majors fit your talents and interests and consider job shadowing opportunities.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Join or create a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

YEAR THREE

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Consider joining a business-focused student organization to maximize your opportunities for networking and building leadership skills.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Talk to faculty about pursuing optional professional certifications like Google AdWords or Hubspot Inbound Marketing.

Join professional associations in your field, like the American Marketing Association.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Take a Community Based Learning (CBL) class that connects course content to the community. Stay engaged and make a difference.

Meet with a career education specialist to conduct a "gap analysis." Figure out the skills you'll need for the career you want while you still have time to build them.

Meet with your academic advisor at least one time each semester!

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

National Student Exchange: Study away for one semester and gain a different perspective. Choose from institutions across the US, US territories, or Canada.

Volunteer for causes that you are passionate about such as animal rescue, 5ks to support medical research, or mentoring local youth.

YEAR FOUR

Apply for graduation! It's finally here! Go online and complete your graduation application. Need help? See your advisor.

Consider the 3+2 program if you'd like to earn both your bachelor's and master's degrees in less time overall.

Check with your advisor to see if you qualify to graduate with honors.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Earn your Business Professionalism Certificate by attending speaker events and skill workshops offered by the Lewis College of Business.

Attend Countdown to Commencement. This is a one stop shop for all things graduation at Marshall! Keep an eye out for this event.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
