MAJOR INFORMATION

- All journalism and mass communications majors must pass a language proficiency exam before admission to any JMC courses at the 300/400 level. The language proficiency requirement may also be met by completing JMC 100 with a C or better OR by completing JMC 103 with a C or better. ACT verbal scores of 30 or better or SAT verbal scores of 650 or better may be used in place of the exam.
- No more than 4 hours of non-JMC electives may be completed in PEL.
- · All SOJMC majors must complete 3 credit hours of internship. Ideally, internships should be completed during the summer between the junior and senior years. To ensure your work is properly credited, you must work through the internship director.
- Submit a complete internship application.
- Secure approval of the employment or other work.
- Get permission to enroll in JMC 490, 491 or 470.

• Maintain weekly contact, attend scheduled meetings and submit a final report and a portfolio.

FOUR YEAR PLAN COLLEGE OF ARTS AND MEDIA

AD/PR ADVERTISING MY ADVISOR'S NAME IS:

Careers in journalism and mass communications are increasingly multilayered as technology and new media outlets spur fresh job titles and responsibilities in social media, web management, multimedia, video production, and data analysis in addition to traditional positions. Majors in SOJMC are configured to reflect new realities of the industry, provide a foundation for all JMC fields that then fan into specializations. This emphasis prepares students to create ads, plan and execute media buys, and complete campaigns. Advertising trains students for agency positions but many graduates work for small businesses, corporations and their own enterprises. Students will learn how to publicize products and services for companies and organizations by employing skills in writing, designing and planning.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Volunteer at the radio station, WMUL FM 88.1, or work with the student daily, The Parthenon. They're solid media experience for any major.

Take an elective course that links diversity to your field of study.

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Join the American Advertising Federation, or "Ad Club," and network with professionals, work on local ad jobs, and get a peek at the capstone project.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Submit your work for the annual American Advertising Federation ADDY, Hearst, and other awards.

Think about who can help you grow as a student and a professional (professors, advisors, alumni, etc.) and ask at least one of them to be your mentor.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.
