YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

Apply to the Student Juried Exhibition, Art and Design scholarships, and summer art workshops/residencies.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

College is a great time to experience the world! Consider studying abroad in the summer, during Spring Break, or for an entire semester.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

YEAR THREE

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Apply to the Student Juried Exhibition, Art and Design scholarships, and summer art workshops/residencies.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

College is a great time to experience the world! Consider studying abroad in the summer, during Spring Break, or for an entire semester.

No need to wait until graduate school. Discuss undergraduate research opportunities with faculty in your major right now.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

College is a great time to experience the world! Consider studying abroad in the summer, during Spring Break, or for an entire semester.

No need to wait until graduate school. Discuss undergraduate research opportunities with faculty in your major right now.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Join or create a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

Apply to the Student Juried Exhibition, Art and Design scholarships, and summer art workshops/residencies.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

YEAR FOUR

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career.

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Consider applying for a year-long service opportunity after graduation like AmeriCorps, Peace Corps, Teach for America, City Year, or Literacy Lab.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
