

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR USE MENTORS AND MENTEES

Terms and Conditions for Students and Alumni Using Marshall Mentor Network as Mentees:

Marshall University Career Services and Marshall University Alumni Association make the Marshall Mentor Network (MMN) available to students and alumni to allow them to connect with professional volunteer mentors who may be able to help with career development. If you choose to contact an MMN volunteer mentor, an email with your name, email address and personal message will be generated by the system and sent to the MMN mentor, however MU Career Services and the MU Alumni Association cannot control when or if you receive a reply. MU Career Services and MU Alumni Association do not investigate, compensate, direct, or in any way control MMN volunteer mentors and do not promise any results from your use of MMN and/or your contact with MMN volunteer mentors.

By using the Marshall Mentor Network (MMN), you agree to use it only for the legitimate purpose of contacting MMN volunteer mentors about career development. Further, you agree to read the "Communicating with the Volunteer Mentors through Marshall Mentor Network" information and use it as a guideline when contacting MMN mentors.

Finally, you understand and hereby agree that all contacts with MMN volunteer mentors are at your sole discretion and risk and you further understand and hereby agree to accept all the risk and to release Marshall University from any and all liability relating to your use of the Marshall Mentor Network and/or your contacts with MMN volunteer mentors.

Terms and Conditions for Marshall Mentor Network Volunteer Mentors:

Marshall University Career Services and Marshall University Alumni Association make the Marshall Mentor Network (MMN) available to students and alumni to allow them to connect with MMN volunteer mentors who may be able to help with career development. If you agree to serve as an MMN volunteer mentor, all the information in your MMN profile will be accessible to all Marshall JobTrax job seekers and all the information in your profile may be shared with the Alumni Association as well. Please note that MU Career Services and MU Alumni Association do not review, direct or control communications from students/alumni to MMN volunteer mentors and cannot control when or if they respond.

By using the Marshall Mentor Network (MMN) and submitting profile information as an MMN volunteer mentor, you agree to use MMN only for the legitimate purpose of contacting students/alumni about career development. Further, you agree to read the "Guidelines for Success" information and use it as a guide for your contacts with students/alumni.

Finally, you understand and hereby agree that all contacts with MMN students/alumni are at your sole discretion and risk and you further understand and hereby agree to accept all the risk and to release Marshall University from any and all liability relating to your use of the Marshall Mentor Network as an MMN volunteer mentor.