

The Marshall University Lewis College of Business & the Brad D. Smith Schools of Business present

Spring 2019 Dean's Distinguished Speaker Series

with TOM WRIGHT

Thomas "Tom" B. Wright, III is the Executive Advisor and former Senior Vice President – Human Resources and Administration of EPR Properties - a real estate investment trust (REIT), specializing in highly enduring segments of the real estate industry.

Mr. Wright served as Managing Member of his own Kansas City based firm, Tom Wright Consulting, where he partnered with executives and business owners in the areas of change management, leadership/executive development, and human resources strategy development. Prior to his consulting activities, Mr. Wright was Senior Vice President – Human Resources and a Corporate Officer at Hallmark Cards, Inc., where he directed all global human resources and personnel services.

WEDNESDAY
February 27th
6:30 p.m.

Brad D. Smith
Foundation Hall
Conference Center

Tom Wright is a proud Son of Marshall with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree. He also graduated from Central Michigan University with a M.S. degree in Administration.

Sponsored by the Minority Business Symposium Grant from the Enterprise Holdings Foundation

For more info, contact
midkiff2@marshall.edu

marshall.edu /cob

