

The Marshall University Lewis College of Business presents

Fall 2018 Dean's Distinguished Speaker Series

"Confessions of a Serial Entrepreneur:
The story of a kid from Muleshoe, Texas-
Wins, losses, lessons along the way"
with DON WILLIAMS

Entrepreneurs live in a world of risk. You can never know with certainty if your innovative idea is going to work, just because there's so much that can go wrong from ideation to execution. However, there are some ways you can learn to embrace risk and make it a powerful resource.

Come listen to Don Williams share his thoughts and learn from a successful entrepreneur.

THURSDAY
September 13, 2018

Reception: 5:30-6:30 pm
Presentation: 6:30 pm

Brad D. Smith
Foundation Hall
Conference Center

Don Williams is a Certified Public Accountant, entrepreneur, and civic leader from Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Williams graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Texas Tech University and holds a Master of Business Administration from Wayland Baptist University. Don Williams has graciously sponsored the Dean's Distinguished Speaker Series for the Lewis College of Business.

Sponsored by Don Williams and the Joachim Foundation.

For more info, contact
midkiff2@marshall.edu

marshall.edu/cob

