

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

HONORING THE BEST IN BUSINESS SINCE 1913

August 15, 2019

Dean Mukherjee
Marshall University
One John Marshall Drive
Corbly Hall 425

Dear Dean Mukherjee,

On behalf of the Beta Gamma Sigma Board of Governors and the staff of Global Headquarters, I'd like to congratulate the entire Beta Gamma Sigma Chapter at Marshall University for earning recognition as a Highest Honors Chapter for the 2018-2019 academic year. The hard work of your team is highly appreciated and recognized by all of us at Beta Gamma Sigma.

The staff has enclosed your 2018-2019 Highest Honors Chapter certificate to recognize your chapter's achievement. We also look forward to the opportunity in recognizing your chapter and congratulating you in person at AACSB events in the coming year. In addition to your chapter's recognition as a Highest Honors Chapter, I hope you'll consider taking advantage of the opportunities listed below. These are designed to further engage your chapter and allow additional visibility for your school.

As a Highest Honors Chapter:

- You are eligible for one Chapter Honor Roll Scholarship, which covers the cost of one student registration to participate in the 2019 Global Leadership Summit, taking place October 31-November 3, 2019 in Chicago, IL. The scholarship covers registration fees, program materials, hotel accommodations for three nights (based on double occupancy) and most meals.
- Your chapter is also qualified to nominate for the following awards. All nominations are due by December 13, 2019.
 - Outstanding Chapter
 - Outstanding Chapter Advisor Award
 - Dean of the Year
 - Business Achievement Award
 - Entrepreneurial Achievement Award

Once again, congratulations for achieving this outstanding distinction. We appreciate your team's diligent work and your continuing support of Beta Gamma Sigma. We look forward to working with your chapter in the 2019-2020 academic year.

Sincerely,

Marielle G. Heijltjes, Ph.D
