St. Joseph Central High School visits the LCOB

Last Thursday, students from St. Joseph Central High School visited the Brad D. Smith Center for Business and Innovation for activities, a tour of the facility, and some information on our College. We are extremely thankful to have been able to host these incredible students for the day, and are excited to see what their future holds!

More pictures from their visitation can be viewed on our Facebook or LinkedIn posts!

Faculty Publication

Recently, Professor Alberto Coustasse-Hencke was published in Pharmacy Times, which circulates to more than 173,000 retail pharmacists. The article Payment Disrupters and Opportunities: Key Trends That Impacted Pharmacy in 2024 delves into the evolving U.S. pharmacy landscape, revealing how rising drug costs and the influence of pharmacy benefit managers (PBMs) affect consumer access to medications. It also explores the potential of pharmacists as key healthcare providers, advocating for reforms that promise a fairer, more efficient healthcare system for all, and can be read here.
