COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ONLINE MASTER OF SCIENCE (M.S.) DEGREE IN ADULT AND CONTINUING EDUCATION (ACE)

I'M AN ADULT EDUCATOR.

BECOME A SON OR DAUGHTER OF MARSHALL.

College of EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ADULT AND CONTINUING EDUCATION (ACE)

The online Master of Science degree program in ACE is a field-based program designed to serve adult learners who may be employed on a full-time basis. The comprehensive program is intended for individuals who serve in instructional, training, leadership, or professional roles in human services areas of business, industry, government, community agencies, health care, or education. Students will learn to teach adults by gaining classroom knowledge, experiencing work-based activities, and participating in projects intended to develop the competencies used by professionals in the areas of Adult Education and Evaluation, and Career and Technical Center Teaching.

ACE Master's Degree in Adult Education and Evaluation

The Adult Education and Evaluation area of emphasis serves professionals looking to expand knowledge and further careers, as well as professionals wanting to transition into teaching adults. Adult Education also serves persons who work with adults in either an instructional or administrative role. Students are drawn from various areas such as human services agencies, those with staff development, or in-service responsibilities in hospitals, business or government, as well as those in adult preparatory programs at the postsecondary or community college level.

ACE Master's Degree in Career and Technical Center Teaching

The West Virginia Career and Technical Center Teaching Certification Program is restricted to currently employed teachers in a CTE Concentration/ Endorsement program area in one of the comprehensive high schools, career tech centers, or multi-county centers.
