The Maier Stem Educator Scholarship was created to increase the number of highly qualified STEM middle school and high school teachers in West Virginia. Four students will be chosen for the 2019-20 academic year, and renewed for the following 3 years. The annual scholarship will be $15,000 for tuition, housing and other costs; a stipend of up to $1,500 for a laptop; and funding for a study abroad or student exchange experience. A total scholarship package of $71,000 maximum over a four-year period will be awarded. This amount may be adjusted based upon other financial aid opportunities.

Selection Criteria:

- First Time Freshman
- West Virginia Resident
- 3.5 High School GPA or greater on a 4.0 scale
- 26 ACT Composite or SAT Equivalent
- Admission to College of Education and Professional Development (COEPD) and enrolled in an eligible COEPD Major —Math, Physics, Chemistry, Biology or General Science
- Applicant must be willing to teach for four years following graduation in West Virginia, preferably in the southern counties.
