Alma Mater, now as we bow before thee,

O gracious mother, hear!
In all thy power, in all thy might,
O gracious mother hear!
In all thy power, in all thy might,
O gracious mother hear!
We come to thee, we call aloud,
For thy great light!

(TRUMPETS)

First Herald: Hear ye! hear ye: all people!
Alma Mater doth speak.

Alma Mater: Rise my children, thou art worthy.
Graciously I give my blessing,
Round my throne today I bind thee
With the golden chain of service.
With thy brothers linked together
Thou art mine, and mine forever.
In the beauty of the rainbow,
In the shining spears of starlight,
In the silvery beams of moonlight,
In the crimson shafts of dawning,
In the golden rays of sunlight,
In the gleam of lightning flashing,
There doth shine the light of Wisdom,
Light our sacred torch keeps burning.
Light, thyself, thy light of learning!

Through years that are to be,
We laud thee, O Marshall,
Our hearts sing to thee!
Thy walls rise in beauty
Mid shade of vine and tree.
They shelter thy children
And bind them safe to thee.
Thy spirit, O Marshall,
In every heart beats high,
Live on Alma Mater,
Thy name ne'er shall die.

Scene—A ship at sea; an uninhabited island.

SYNOPSIS OF PLAY

Prospero, the right Duke of Milan, has been robbed of his dukedom by his unscrupulous brother, Antonio, aided by Alonzo, King of Naples, and has been cast adrift on the sea in an open boat with his daughter Miranda. They drift to an island, where they live with only Caliban, a deformed slave, and various spirits, chief among which is the sprite, Ariel. As the play opens, Alonzo, Antonio, and their party are shipwrecked on the island in a raging tempest, which Prospero, by his magic, has brought about. After many harrowing experiences, during which they are overwhelmed by demonstrations of Prospero's magic power, the usurpers plead for mercy and agree to restore Prospero's dukedom. Prospero readily forgives them their perfidy. Meanwhile Ferdinand, son of Alonzo, and Miranda have fallen in love with each other, and the play ends with a festival of the fairies to celebrate their betrothal.

O WORSHIP THE KING

O worship the King, all glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love;
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavillioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

THE OATH

I, about to be graduated from Marshall College, an institution of the State of West Virginia,

ACKNOWLEDGING

My obligation to the beneficent Creator of all men, who has bestowed upon me the blessings of life in a great and prosperous state whose marvelous beauty of mountain, forest, and stream and whose extraordinary riches of natural resources hourly urge me to higher planes of civic duty and reverent thinking;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to the race, which has made me heir to a civilization wrought out by centuries of toil and thought and preserved by the bravery of its heroes, the wisdom of its sages, and the faith of its saints;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to this nation and to this Commonwealth which through guardian organization and through open school doors, have jointly made it possible for me to come into the full riches of my natural and my racial inheritances;

HERE AND NOW PLEDGE

LIFELONG LOYALTY to the shaping ideals of American citizenship:
LIBERTY, bounded by law drawn for the common weal,
EQUALITY, of opportunity for all, and
JUSTICE, administered in accord with the dictates of the common will lawfully expressed.

I HERE AND NOW FURTHER PLEDGE

That in all the years to be granted to me and to the fullness of my allotted strength

I SHALL SERVE

both alone and with my fellows, to the high ends that uncleanness, greed, selfishness, and pride shall lessen, that integrity, charity, comradeship, and reverence shall increase, that this, my generation, shall pass on to the generations to come after it a happier and nobler civilization.
