SYNOPSIS OF PLAY

Two houses of Verona, the Montagues and the Capulets, are deadly enemies. Romeo, a Montague, goes with his friends, Mercutio and Benvolio, disguised by a mask, to a party at the home of Capulet, where he falls desperately in love with Juliet, old Capulet's daughter. They are secretly married by Friar Laurence. Later Mercutio is slain by Tybalt, Juliet's cousin, and Romeo in rage slays Tybalt and is punished by banishment. To assuage Juliet's grief, which they suppose to be for Tybalt, the Capulets arrange for Juliet's immediate marriage to a young nobleman, County Paris. To avoid her marriage to Paris, Juliet takes a sleeping potion given to her by Friar Laurence and is buried in the Capulet tomb apparently dead. Friar Laurence sends word to Romeo so that he can come and rescue her from the tomb, but the letter miscarries and Romeo is led to believe that Juliet is really dead. He returns to Verona and to Juliet's tomb where he meets and slays Paris. Then finding Juliet, apparently dead, he takes poison and dies. Juliet awakes and seeing Romeo dead, stabs herself and dies. The Capulets and the Montagues discover the dead lovers and in their mutual grief give up their enmity and pledge everlasting friendship.

O WORSHIP THE KING

O worship the King, all glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love;
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavillioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

THE OATH

I, about to be graduated from Marshall College, an institution of the State of West Virginia,

ACKNOWLEDGING

My obligation to the beneficent Creator of all men, who has bestowed upon me the blessings of life in a great and prosperous state whose marvelous beauty of mountain, forest, and stream and whose extraordinary riches of natural resources hourly urge me to higher planes of civic duty and reverent thinking;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to the race, which has made me heir to a civilization wrought out by centuries of toil and thought and preserved by the bravery of its heroes, the wisdom of its sages, and the faith of its saints;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to this nation and to this Commonwealth which through guardian organization and through open school doors, have jointly made it possible for me to come into the full riches of my natural and my racial inheritances;

HERE AND NOW PLEDGE

LIFELONG LOYALTY to the shaping ideals of American citizenship:
LIBERTY, bounded by law drawn for the common weal,
EQUALITY, of opportunity for all, and
JUSTICE, administered in accord with the dictates of the common will lawfully expressed.

I HERE AND NOW FURTHER PLEDGE

That in all the years to be granted to me and to the fullness of my allotted strength

I SHALL SERVE

both alone and with my fellows, to the high ends that uncleanness, greed, selfishness, and pride shall lessen, that integrity, charity, comradeship, and reverence shall increase, that this, my generation, shall pass on to the generations to come after it a happier and nobler civilization.
