Hate and Violence ~ American Style

JACK LEVIN, Ph.D., has specialized in the study of violence and hate for over 25 years. He has examined the methods and mentality of brutal killers and other violent and vicious criminals and serial killers.

LEVIN has authored or co-authored over 30 books and more than 150 articles in professional journals and national newspapers. He has also appeared on national television programs, including 48 Hours, 20/20, Dateline NBC, and The Today Show.

LEVIN was the American Sociological Association's 2009 Public Understanding of Sociology Award recipient.

LEVIN has spoken to a wide variety of audiences, including the White House Conference on Hate Crimes, the Department of Justice, the Department of Education, OSCE's Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (a membership of 59 countries) and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Presented by the Marshall University College of Liberal Arts, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Department of Criminal Justice, Department of Political Science, Academic Affairs, and Multicultural Affairs.
