

SUMMER SESSION II

6 June to 8 July, 2016

Marshall University Archaeological Field School

ANT 323 (6 credits)

Hands-on training in archaeological surveying, excavation and recording, with a lab component, while participating in research on our local prehistory and history. No experience required

A few key words:

NATURE

FOCUSED WORK

PATIENCE

RESEARCH

TEAMWORK

FRIENDSHIPS

For more information, contact Dr. Nicholas Freidin: freidin@marshall.edu; 304-696-2794